PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—A 41-year-old father of two children was jailed for investigation of kidnaping today after Mrs. Evelyn Ann Smith identified him as her abductor.

Daniel J. Marsin, an unemployed welder, refused to admit his guilt. He grinned broadly when Mrs. Smith, 23, wife of a Phoenix industrialist, picked him from a police lineup of five men.

"That's him," said Mrs. Smith. "There's no question about it." Marsin, who has lived in Phoenix with his wife and children since 1951, refused to make any statement to police. He would not discuss whether he was the man who kidnaped the young mother at gunpoint Wednesday afternoon and held her 24 hours until $75,000 was paid.

Police admitted they had no clues to what happened to the ransom money which the victim's husband, Herbert, said he left as directed at the Superstition Mountains, 45 miles east of Phoenix.

When Marsin was arrested five miles from the payoff point late Thursday night, he had only 17 cents in his pockets.

He was naked to the waist when he stumbled into a ranch house pleading for a drink of water.

The deputies said Marsin told them at that time he had been prospecting and ran out of water, then tore off his shirt and undershirt when he became delirious.

Police said he made "several

Middies Cleared For Commissions

ANNAPOLIS, Md. (AP)—Three young officers who sweated out their bars for a full week after the rest of their class showed no rancor today as they prepared to head for leaves and new duty stations.

They were commissioned in quick ceremonies at the Naval Academy Friday night, a few hours after the Navy in Washington had cleared them of being possible security risks.

The three midshipmen, who became close friends during their week-long wait, went to Washington Friday for separate, personal interviews with Secretary of the Navy Charles Thomas before their clearance was publicly announced.

Ens. Paul Shimek Jr., 22, of RFD, 2, Hazen, Ark., said Friday night he "felt quite honored to be ushered into the Navy by a personal interview with the secretary."

Ens. Harold I. Pollack, 23, of Hartford, Conn., said he was about to claim the same credit and "felt great."

And Marine 2nd Lt. Peter Yadlowsky, 23, of Jersey City, N.J., said he was "honored."

Saginaw Man Kills Estranged Wife And Her Twin Sister

SAGINAW (AP)—John Scott, 26, shot and killed his estranged wife, Delores Alice, 20, and her twin sister, Mrs. Dorothy Lee Jackson, Friday night, police said.

The shooting climaxed a family quarrel at Mrs. Jackson's four-room second floor flat in northeast Saginaw, officers said.

Sheriff's deputies said Scott admitted the shooting after he was arrested for questioning.

Officers said Scott shot the women with a .32 caliber Colt revolver. Mrs. Scott was making her home with her sister and brother-in-law, Raymond Jackson, 26. Jackson was wounded slightly by a stray shot.

Mrs. Scott was the mother of four small children. Mrs. Jackson was the mother of three children and was expecting a fourth in August.

Fight Mixed With McCarthy Hearing In Radio Broadcast

ALBUQUERQUE (AP)—For ten minutes Friday night, the McCarthy-Army hearings had several participants coming to blows—at least that's the way it sounded in Albuquerque.

A hitch in patching wires caused the hearings, broadcast over KGGM, to be superimposed over the Joey Giardello-Bobby Jones fight, broadcast over KOAT.

The double program went out over both stations.

Listeners said Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis) was in the midst of heated testimony when an excited sports announcer began coming in with such things as "it's a blow to the stomach and a right to the jaw."

BEATEN BY MOTHER—Joey Pietrandrea, 3-years-old, is in the receiving hospital in Detroit, due to a savage whipping by his mother, Mrs. Rosemary Pietrandrea, 20, because he spilled a glass of milk three days ago. Joey told attendants "Mommy said she would hit me till my head broke." The boy's mother told him to say he fell downstairs. (NEA Telephoto)

Eisenhower May Think Of Retiring If Democrats Win

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower's top aide has dropped a hint that a Democratic victory in the fall congressional elections could make Eisenhower think of retiring to his Gettysburg, Pa., farm after this four-year term.

The aide, Sherman Adams, said Friday night in an informal talk to the Citizens for Eisenhower Congressional Committee that he doesn't know what the President might do in 1956.

But he said loss of Congress to the Democrats in November could be one of "certain conditions that might make a certain farm in Pennsylvania an attractive place to retire to."

Adams told the Citizens for Eisenhower they "could make the difference" by working for Republican candidates.

The Citizens for Eisenhower is a reactivated organization that worked in 1952 to help win the presidency for the World War II commander of Allied and U. S. forces in Europe. It is pledged to support candidates for Congress who back the Eisenhower program.

Adams said election of a Democratic congress at the half-way point in the Eisenhower administration could bring a "journey to the left again." If that happened, he continued, many of what he called the "middle way" Eisenhower proposals would be doomed.

Adams blamed the Democrats in Congress for blocking action on Hawaii statehood, Taft-Hartley revision, and a proposal to lower the voting age to 18.

He said Democratic votes have not been forthcoming when "the chips were down and the Eisenhower program desperately needed votes," and he derided criticism of the President on grounds that Eisenhower lacked "leadership, decisiveness and positiveness."

End Of McCarthy Feud Demanded

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP)—Acting Chairman Mundt (R-SD) called today for an end to a "feud" between two Senate Investigations subcommittee aides which exploded in hot words Friday and threatened to carry into next week's McCarthy-Army hearings.

Roy M. Cohn, chief counsel for the subcommittee and one of the principals in the dispute between Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis) and top Army officials, was accused by Rot F. Kennedy of threatening in an after-session clash to "get" Sen. Jackson (D-Wash.) on a Communist issue.

Cohn denied this and said Kennedy, brother of Sen. Kennedy (D-Mass) and adviser to subcommittee Democrats, admitted "hatred" toward him and other members of McCarthy's staff.

Mundt, who said the incident escaped his notice when he recessed the hearings for the weekend Friday, said in an interview "there is a feud which has been going on for a long time between Kennedy and Cohn. I don't know why and I don't care why." Mundt said, "It is something that has no place in the hearings and it isn't going to have a place in the hearings. They are just popping off and they can stop it."

Yacht Arrives Safely At Holland, 12 Hours Late In Lake Crossing

HOLLAND, Mich. (AP)—A Michigan cartoonist and his two sons landed safely at Holland early today nearly 12 hours overdue on a yachting trip across Lake Michigan.

Kreigh Collins, who draws the Sunday newspaper comic strip "Kevin the Bold," and his son, Eric, 16, and David 14, docked at 2:30 a. m. (EST), the Holland Coast Guard station said.

Guardsmen said Collins told them his 27½-foot yawl was becalmed for several hours and the vessel's auxiliary engine failed to function properly.

Collins wife had reported last night that her husband and sons were overdue on a cross-lake trip from Racine, Wis. Mrs. Collins said the yacht was due at Holland at 3 p. m., yesterday.

The family lives at Ada, a small community near Grand Rapids.

The Coast Guard had planned to begin a search if the ship failed to make port by 4 a. m.

Dulles Outlines Conditions For Entering Indochina War

Young Roosevelt Seeks New York Governor's Job

NEW YORK (AP)—Rep. Franklin D. Roosevelt Jr., has come out as an active candidate for the Democratic nomination for governor of New York City, Carmine De Sapio and Charles A. Buckley.

Roosevelt's candidacy was reported after a conference Friday with two top Democratic leaders of New York City, Carmine De Sapio and Charles A. Buckley.

De Sapio is a member of the Democratic National Committee and leader of Tammany Hall, the Manhattan Democratic organization. Buckley is Democratic leader of Bronx county.

They reported Roosevelt, already backed by party leaders in 16 of the state's 62 counties, stated he definitely intended to run for the nomination.

Buckley said, however, that Roosevelt neither asked for nor received assurance of support from the two New York City leaders.

"It's a little early, yet," he added.

The party candidates are to be named officially at conventions in late September, but Roosevelt was reported to be seeking an earlier commitment as nominee in order to begin campaigning for the November election.

He has repeatedly claimed Republican Gov. Thomas E. Dewey arranged for the conventions to be held on Sept. 21-22 in order that the campaign will be a short one and consequently favorable to the incumbent Republicans.

Dewey has not announced whether he will seek reelection for a fourth term as governor.

Rescue Efforts Fail; Two Brothers Drown In Lake Near Otsego

OTSEGO, Mich. (AP)—Two brothers drowned Friday night in near-by Minkler Lake after rescue attempts with two row boats failed.

Deputy Roy Priest of the Allegan County Sheriff's Department, identified the dead as Donald Hyde, 21, of Kalamazoo, and his brother, Lawrence, 30, of Allegan.

Priest said Donald was swimming when he began to call for help. He said Lawrence and a cousin, Charles Foote of Otsego, took a boat after Donald, but it tipped over.

Foote told Priest he then swam to shore and brought a second boat to rescue the pair, but it also overturned. Foote said he again swam to shore for help, but it was too late.

Bishop Page Named Protestant Chaplain Of U. P. State Police

LANSING (AP)—The Rt. Rev. Herman R. Page of Marquette, Episcopal Bishop of the Northern Diocese of Michigan, was appointed Protestant chaplain of the state police in the Upper Peninsula today.

State Police Commissioner Joseph A. Childs said Bishop Page was appointed because of his interest in the welfare of police officers and his effectiveness as a counselor and consultant. He will have the rank of captain.

Chicago Fire Trap Blaze Fatal To 7

CHICAGO (AP)—Seven persons were killed Friday night when they were trapped in a fast spreading fire in a four-story apartment building which a city official termed a "fire trap."

A fire department official, who said the cause of the fire was not immediately determined, added, "it doesn't look too good — it spread too fast."

Nine persons were injured, one seriously, as the fire raged through the old brick structure, located at 1702 Erie St., on the city's near Northwest Side.

Premier Of France Defeated, 306-293, In Confidence Vote

PARIS (AP)—The French National Assembly today defeated Premier Joseph Laniel on a vote of confidence 306-293. The vote did not, however, make Laniel's resignation mandatory and it was not immediately clear whether he was going to try to remain in office.

Under the French Constitution, a government must resign only if it is defeated by an absolute majority of all members of the assembly. This absolute majority is 313 votes.

Urged Not To Quit

In practice, governments have resigned if put in a minority on a vote of confidence, even if the opponents do not rally the absolute majority. An aide close to Laniel this morning said the Premier would follow this procedure.

Pressures were being put on him to remain, however. President Rene Coty was reported to be urging Laniel not to quit unless forced to.

Immediately after announcement of the vote, Laniel talked with President Coty for an hour. He gave no inkling of his intentions, telling reporters simply:

"I came to inform the President about developments in the situation. A cabinet meeting will be held at 3 p. m. 8 a. m. (CST). The Assembly will meet again at four o'clock." (9 a. m. CST).

Today's vote of confidence was on a tricky and negative procedural question. Early Thursday morning, the deputies refused to adopt a resolution endorsing gov-

Dentist's Wife Admits Giving Lover $10,000

DETROIT (AP)—The trust of Mrs. Edith Small in her friend Jules Lack's business future was so strong she invested $10,000 in it. The comely mother of three boys, whose dentist-husband faces a murder charge in Lack's gun-shot death, has confirmed that she turned over $10,000 to Lack for stock in his New York air-conditioning firm.

Insisting she had "every faith" in Lack, Mrs. Small, 30, told her story to newspaper reporters at her home Friday.

Mrs. Small, who met the reporters in her sunsuit, said she made the investment at a promised 8 per cent return in an effort to assure herself a larger income in event of divorce.

Her husband, Dr. Kenneth B. Small, 31, will be brought into court in Allegan Tuesday on a first degree murder charge in Lack's Memorial Day weekend shooting.

Lack, 48, was shot at a swank summer lodge while weekending with Mrs. Small and friends. Police say Dr. Small admits the shooting in resentment over Lack's attentions to his wife.

Submarine Gets Guided Missile

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—The Navy will arm its first atomic submarine, the Nautilus, with the Regulus guided missile.

James H. Smith Jr., assistant secretary of the Navy for air, announced this Friday night before the Aviation Writers Assn. at its annual meeting.

The Regulus, a surface-to-surface missile, is being built by the Chance Vought Co., Fort Worth, Tex.

It is 32 feet long and has a wing span of 21 feet. The wingtips of the newer models fold back for easier storage aboard ship.

The missile weighs 14,522 pounds and is in the high sub-sonic speed range.

Smith also declared that as a result of new techniques and weapons, a modern carrier striking force can launch in 20 minutes a heavier bombing raid than was launched by all carriers in all of World War II, and can reach out more than twice as far.

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP)—The New York National Guard has excused Roy M. Cohn temporarily from field training so he can continue to take part in the McCarthy-Army hearing.

The Guard Friday bowed to the Senate Investigations subcommittee's request for a delay in calling up Cohn, chief counsel for the Senate group airing the dispute between the Army and Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.).

Cohn, 27, a first lieutenant in the Guard, had been scheduled to report today to Camp Kilmer, N. J., for two weeks of routine training.

Young Wins Battle To Take Control Of New York Central

By ED MORSE

NEW YORK (AP)—The future of the nation's second biggest railroad, the New York Central, lay today in the hands of Texas-born Robert Young.

He won the bitter fight for control by a margin of 1,070,000 shares out of the Central's grand total of 6,447,410, an authoritative source who declined to be named said Friday.

The official results, which may vary slightly from this figure, are to be announced Monday by the election inspectors at Albany, N. Y., where the count of shares has been in progress since the stockholders' meeting May 26.

Texas Money Helps
But there was no doubt about the outcome. In Los Angeles, Young's wealthy Texas friend, Clint W. Murchison, confirmed the smashing victory.

It was Murchison who, with his fellow Texan, Sid W. Richardson, bought the long-contested 800,000 shares which were the back-bone of Young's victory.

"Yes, we have won the Central fight—the Young group, that is," said Murchison, "it's in the bag, even without those 800,000 shares."

But no comment was available from the defeated Central Board headed by Central President William White.

Young's likely choice to take over White's job as president is Alfred E. Perlman, 51-year-old executive vice president of the Denver & Rio Grande Western Railroad.

Last April 14 White declared he would resign as president if Young won the proxy battle.

Young's triumph ended an 85-year reign by the old banking powers of the East over the affairs of the Central system—a 10,700-mile road second only to the Pennsylvania in revenues and to the Santa Fe in route miles.

It was a victory of the rising financial power of the West over the banking and family offshoots of the old-time Eastern money lords, Cornelius Vanderbilt and J. Pierpont Morgan.

Young has always feuded with the "Wall St. Bankers" and he launched his proxy campaign by denouncing them after the Central Board denied in February his demand for the road's board chairmanship.

He waged a blitz campaign which the powers behind the Central were either unable or unwilling to match. Young bought more stock. He made more speeches, held more press conferences, ran more newspaper advertisements.

As of April, the 15 nominees on Young's slate for the board of directors owned or controlled 1,118,880 shares of Central stock. The embattled Central Board members could muster only 106,122 shares.

He entered a hardware store and pointed a gun at the proprietor who snatched the weapon and called police.

Worse still, a customer recognized the man.

And it got particularly funny when police found out the getaway car at the curb was out of gas.

Single-Handed Intervention By U. S. Ruled Out

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of State Dulles returned to Washington early today to press for fulfillment of five conditions he says might justify American intervention in Indochina.

Dulles' plane touched down at National Airport just a few hours after a five-power conference of Allied military leaders ended at the Pentagon.

The military representatives of Britain, France, Australia, New Zealand and the United States had deliberated a week on the strategic situation in Communist-menaced Southeast Asia. The conference broke up Friday night without public announcement. The Defense Department said: "Their conclusions will be transmitted to their respective governments."

French Need Help

Eisenhower told his news conference Thursday the defense position of the French possibly has improved in recent weeks, but he added that outside aid doubtless could be used very effectively.

He said, however, that as of the moment he had no plan to ask Congress for power to take any action in Indochina outside the normal traditional processes of government operation.

Dulles spelled out the five conditions in a speech Friday to the Los Angeles World Affairs Council. This was his last stop on a three-day speaking tour in the West.

Two developments appeared likely to work in his favor in working for the conditions he has specified:

1. Indications that Geneva negotiations for an Indochina peace may be brought to an early end in view of the growing conviction of Western officials that the Communist nations there are unwilling to make an acceptable armistice.

2. Reported readiness of the British government to begin active consideration of a Southeast Asian alliance.

Wounded Going Home

However, it seemed doubtful the situation could be resolved in time to consider American combat help to French and native forces facing the Communist Vietnam in the vital Red River Delta.

The U. S. Air Force Friday announced it will evacuate about 1,000 wounded French troops from Indochina to their homeland. They would be brought back from non-combat areas, however, without American forces themselves entering the conflict.

In his Los Angeles speech Friday, Dulles declared that the problem in Indochina is one of "restoring tranquility" in an area where trouble is being "fomented from Communist China." But he said the problem cannot be successfully dealt with "merely by unilateral armed intervention."

Having thus once more ruled out any single-handed action by the United States, Dulles spelled out these five conditions which he said

Bethel Church At Stonington Razed By Fire

Fire starting from lightning yesterday afternoon destroyed Bethel Evangelical Lutheran Church at Stonington, long a picturesque landmark in that community. The replacement value of the structure was estimated at between $20,000 and $30,000.

The loss was partly covered by insurance.

A severe electrical storm in the Delta County area preceded the fire at Stonington.

The Rapid River volunteer fire department was called about 3 p. m. and when they arrived the building was a mass of flames. The fire had been underway some 15 or 20 minutes before it was observed, and the firemen had to make a run of about 25 miles to reach Stonington.

Built About 1914
Volunteers removed the rugs, the cross, and some other interior furnishings of the church. But the pews and most of the fixtures were destroyed with the church building.

The large white church, pictured on a calendar cover by a local business for many years, was built about 1914, following organization of Bethel Evangelical Lutheran Church at Stonington in 1904.

The Rev. Wilbert Johnson of Rapid River is pastor of the Bethel Church at Stonington. In past years it was served by the pastor of Bethany Lutheran Church of Escanaba. The windows in the church at Stonington were from the second, Bethany Lutheran Church in Escanaba, which was razed in 1912 when the present church was built here.

In Escanaba the lightning struck the northeast corner of the Morley, Murphy Company (formerly Delta Hardware) building in the 400 block, Ludington St., knocking loose some bricks. There was no fire. Firemen were called there at 3 p. m.

Fifteen minutes earlier the firemen were called to 418 Ludington, where lightning was reported to have struck. There was no damage.

Rainfall was heavy during the storm yesterday afternoon, and more rain fell at 4 a. m. today. Total rainfall was .92 of an inch.

There is the possibility of more thunderstorms this afternoon. The storms will end tonight and temperatures inland will reach 75 degrees on Sunday, according to S. W. Kipper of the U. S. Weather Bureau office at Escanaba. Temperatures along the lake shore will be about 67 degrees.

Michigan K. Of C. Sets Record In New Memberships

MACKINAC ISLAND (AP)—The Michigan Knights of Columbus in 1953-54 gained more members than any other jurisdiction, delegates to the annual convention were told today.

Thomas Kavanagh, Carson City, retiring this year as state deputy, said Michigan gained 6,500 members during the past year for a total of 50,500, largest membership in the history of the Michigan group.

The Most Rev. Thomas L. Noa, bishop of Marquette, Most Rev. Allen J. Babcock, bishop of Grand Rapids and Gov. Williams are among speakers on the program schedule.

The convention closes Saturday with the election of officers. Walter H. Graveline, Bay City, is slated for the state deputy post.

Upper Peninsula Lions Open 3-Day Convention Here Today

More than 400 Lions and their wives will meet today in Escanaba for the opening of a three-day 32nd annual convention of District 10, Lions International, which includes 61 clubs in the Upper Peninsula of Michigan.

The convention opens this afternoon with registration of delegates and guests at the Chamber of Commerce. After the convention parade, scheduled for 5:30 this afternoon, registrations will be taken at the Sherman Hotel, convention headquarters.

The Lions' parade promises to be one of the highlights of the convention and approximately 50 units will participate, including many bands, marching units and decorated cars and floats. Escanaba police have requested that cars keep off the main street after 5 p. m. The line of march will be east on Ludington from Stephenson Ave.

3 Business Sessions

A mix-meet, including smorgasbord and dance, will be featured tonight at the Sherman Hotel from 8 o'clock on. The affair is for Lions and wives.

The first business session will begin Sunday morning at 9:30 at the Bonifas Auditorium. Mayor Harlan Yelland of the Escanaba Lions Club will present the welcoming address. District Gov. Waldo A. McCrae, Marquette, will preside. The second business session will be held at 2 Sunday and the closing session Monday morning at 9:30, all at Bonifas Auditorium.

A feature of the Sunday afternoon program will include an one train special train ride to the top of the C&NW ore docks at 4. A special showing of the Indian Village show for Lions and others will be at 2 at the fair grounds.

Banquet On Sunday

Sunday night nearly 500 Lions, ladies and guests will attend the governor's banquet at the St. Joseph parish hall. Main speaker will be Finis A. Davis, of Louisville, Ky., chairman of the board of governors of Lions International.

The governor's ball will be held Sunday night at the Sherman Hotel.

Lions will attend a noon luncheon Sunday at the Knights of Columbus Hall at which Ray Galipeau, of Merrill, Wis., will be the principal speaker. Ladies will have brunch at the House of Ludington.

Monday morning at 7:30 the key-men breakfast for all Lions will be held at the K of C Club. Special entertainment has been arranged for each program.

Following the business session Monday morning, a closing luncheon for Lions and ladies will be held Monday noon at the St. Joseph parish hall.

Considerable interest has developed over the movement to divide the district into two divisions and this will be determined at one of the business sessions.

Call Organization Of Port Authority Meeting June 16

An organization meeting of the Escanaba Port Authority committee will be held at 7:30 p. m. Wednesday, June 16, at the Escanaba Chamber of Commerce, called by Roy Jensen, acting as temporary chairman.

The nine-man committee was appointed by Mayor Harlan Yelland with the request that it meet and organize at an early date. Out of the committee will come a permanent Port Authority to consider development of the local harbor in the light of the St. Lawrence Seaway.

Comprising the Port Authority committee are the following: Ben Gallagher, Ralph Christensen, John Cannon, Charles Priestner, Guy Knutson, Grover Lewis, Robert Thyberg, Maurice Harrison and Jensen.

Escanaba, Manistique Represented In 107th Guard Ceremony Sunday

Scores of members of Escanaba and Manistique National Guard companies and civilian residents of the Escanaba area will attend and participate in a special ceremony in the Porcupine Mountains tomorrow afternoon commemorating the 107th Engineers of the Upper Peninsula.

The occasion will be the dedication of M-107 highway west of Ontonagon in the heart of the beautiful Porcupines as the 107th Engineers Memorial Highway. Visitors are expected from Chicago, Detroit, Milwaukee, Lansing, Racine, Kenosha and Upper Peninsula communities.

Part Of Famed 32nd

Wisconsin's interest in the affair is due to the fact that the 107th was attached to the famed 32nd or Red Arrow division of Wisconsin and Michigan in World War I.

The principal speaker will be Maj. Gen. Ralph A. Loveland, of

Christian Science Lecture Will Be Given Here Monday

The power of scientific Christianity to heal sickness and bring freedom from fear and other evils will be the topic of a public lecture to be delivered in Escanaba Monday, June 14, by John Selover of Long Beach, Calif.

Mr. Selover, who is a member of The Christian Science Board of Lectureship, will speak under the auspices of The Christian Science society in the church edifice, 325 13th St. S., at 8:15 EST. His subject will be "Christian Science: The Healing Power of God, Life, Truth and Love."

An authorized public practitioner and teacher of Christian Science, Mr. Selover practiced law in Long Beach from 1928 until 1941. In that year he was appointed Christian Science Committee on Publication for Southern California, and since then has devoted full time to Christian Science activities.

Steam Plant Closes June 15

Escanaba central steam heating plant will close Tuesday, June 15, for the summer season after being in continuous operation since last Sept. 12, it was announced today by Supt. Joseph Paterick.

Operation of the plant and steam mains has been "very successful" and there has been no interruption of steam service to steam customers during the heating season, Paterick reported.

The unaccounted steam loss for the previous year's operation. Two new customers were added the past season, one the WDBC radio station building and the other the Birger E. Johnson building located at 1109-1111 Ludington St. With the addition of these two buildings the city's steam sales have increased the degree days decreased for the utility, Paterick reported.

During the 1952-53 heating season the city steam utility sold 43,435,000 pounds of steam and burned 3,459 tons of coal; during the 1953-54 season a total of 43,673,200 pounds of steam was sold and 3,351 tons of coal were burned. There were 74 less degree days in the heating season now ending than for the 1952-53 season.

The steam plant operating crew, comprising four firemen, will be transferred to the city dredge for the summer months.

Old At 40 Or Young At 60—Which?

SOME people are old at 40. Others are young at 60. You have known both kinds. They live on opposite sides of the "Street of Life." Those on the sunny side seem never to grow old, in spite of the passing years; while those on the dark side lose the fire of youth early and are bowed down by the weight of the same years borne so lightly by their more fortunate neighbors across the street.

What is the mysterious something that makes the clock race faster for one group of people, causing them to grow old before their time, while others retain their vigor and productiveness as the years roll by?

Co. C Guardsmen In Busy Weekend

This weekend will be a busy one for all members of Company C and will include participation in a parade, range firing, and dedication of a highway, said Capt. Roy J. Johnson.

This afternoon at 5 National Guardsmen and motor units of the company will participate in the Lions Club convention parade.

Guardsmen will meet at 7 a. m. Sunday at the Armory to leave by motor convoy for a day of range firing at the National Guard rifle range north of Gladstone. It is the last day of firing and all new men will be qualified before the day ends. A noon meal will be served in the field by the unit's mess section.

A detachment of troops from Company C will on Sunday morning leave for Ontonagon to participate in ceremonies dedicating a portion of state highway in honor of 1007th Engineers. Capt. Johnson will be in command of the group representing Company C.

Company C is also sponsoring the Tommy Scott show, which will be presented in the auditorium of Escanaba Junior High School next Friday, June 18. The "hill billy jamboree and circus revenue" will feature String Bean, a star of the Grand Ole Opry. Proceeds from the event sponsored by the Guardsmen will go to the Little League baseball unit.

Escanaba Is Happy To Welcome Upper Peninsula Lions Members

ESCANABA is happy to welcome the members of Lions Clubs of the Upper Peninsula and their wives, meeting here today, Sunday and Monday for their annual district convention.

Escanaba is proud of its reputation as a convention city. We are certain that you will enjoy the hospitality of the community and we trust that your visit with us will be pleasant and profitable to you and your organization.

The work of Lions is well known to the people of Escanaba. We are proud of the community service performed over a period of 20 years by the Escanaba Lions Club and we are cognizant of the equally outstanding achievements of all the ten Lions Clubs serving the various communities of Delta County. With their activities as a guide, it is apparent that the Lions Clubs of the entire Upper Peninsula are making a contribution to the welfare of their communities that is immense in scope and in public benefit.

The growth of Lionism in the Upper Peninsula is amazing and is indicative, we think, of the appeal that such a live-wire organization has for civic-minded persons in this area. The 61 Lions Clubs of the Upper Peninsula embrace a total of more than 2,200 members.

We are proud that the Lions have selected us for their 1954 convention. We want to welcome them to Escanaba and to express our hope that their convention here will be most enjoyable in every way.

UNDERWORLD WON'T LIKE NEW JERSEY DECISION

By a 4 to 3 decision the New Jersey supreme court has ordered the attorney of a murdered racketeer to disclose to a grand jury information about gambling protection payments. The attorney had declined to do so, arguing that these conversations between lawyer and client were confidential and privileged.

Chief Justice Arthur T. Vanderbilt of the New Jersey court drew a distinction between advice on a case in progress and many conversations over a long time, during which the client was involved in continuing crime or conspiracies against society. The deceased was not under arrest or indictment at this time, the chief justice wrote, but instead was corrupting officials.

This doctrine, described as precedent-breaking, evidently fails to impress three of the seven New Jersey justices. The underworld and its legal advisers will surely dissent for reasons of expediency. Others in disagreement will argue from principle. But to the man on the curbstone there is something attractive in the idea that society should have the right and power to deprive chronic law-breakers and their advisers of a privilege enjoyed by other persons.

A HOUSE FOR BOYS TO WRECK (Milwaukee Journal)

A British schoolmaster, J. B. Preston, made an intriguing suggestion recently for curbing youthful vandalism. He proposed to the town council of Hatfield, England, that it provide a "Mischief Manor." It would be a half completed house. The children could roam through it, and wreck it and then, according to Mr. Preston's notion, "would go home, rid of their lust for destruction."

There's a modicum of sense in the idea. The hours that many of us spend in our boyhood shooting empty bottles in the village dump, pushing rocks off a bluff, whacking boxes to bits in the back yard, weren't entirely wasted. We got rid of some of our youthful "lust for destruction" that might otherwise have been vented on more valuable objects.

But the bottles, the rocks and boxes didn't have to be put back together. "Mischief Manor" would have to be — and quickly. A few hours rest and the youthful wrecking crew would be ready to wreak havoc all over again, and in faster time because of experience.

Guess we just have to keep on looking, in this country and England, for some practical way to deal with the boyish urge to bust things.

A teenage Ohio boy who stole an auto "just for a joke" now has 30 days in a reformatory to laugh.

About all we can do about the constantly changing weather is hope that the weatherman's corns hurt, too.

Merry-Go-Round

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON—Adlai Stevenson is as salty to talk to person-to-person as his political wisecracks make him out to be.

Interviewing him for television at New York's Savoy Plaza just after he spent a hectic morning speaking at Columbia University's 200th anniversary, Adlai munched an orange, wished he could accompany ex-Sen. Bill Benton on a yachting cruise, remarked that being under the glare of the TV cameras was a good way to lose weight.

When producer Nick Webster told him, "Keep your head in the same position because we've got it on the wall," Adlai remarked, "I've been wondering all day where my head was."

Webster referred, of course, to the shadow of Stevenson's head.

When Adlai met an assistant flaunting a red-and-orange necktie he wisecracked: "Looks like the Spanish armada." And when I started to say that Stevenson was an authority on government because his grandfather had been vice president of the United States, he remarked: "Don't bring my grandfather in. I wasn't born then."

On the serious side, Stevenson discussed the important question of bipartisan foreign policy which he saw operate firsthand under Roosevelt.

TOO MANY DULLESSES

"The Republican party," he said, "has no unity on the subject of foreign affairs, and we sometimes wonder who the secretary of state might be."

Asked whether he referred to statements by Senator Knowland of California on foreign policy, Stevenson replied:

"And Vice President Nixon. I was going to say secretary of state Knowland, secretary of state Nixon and secretary of state Dulles, leaving some state of confusion. This is what I call foreign policy by the platoon system."

"I don't mean to be derisive about it," Stevenson continued, "but secretary of state Dulles has a serious problem—which is to maintain the continuity of public support and understanding of what our national policies are. And it's of infinite importance to all of us, whether we're Republicans or Democrats. That's of secondary concern. The main concern is that we have a common policy, that we know where we're going and that we support it as united people."

Stevenson also enumerated the many Republicans who worked under Roosevelt including his own chief, Secretary of the Navy Frank Knox; Secretary of War Henry L. Stimson; Undersecretary of War Robert Patterson; John J. McCloy; Robert Lovett and various other Republicans.

Asked whether these were some of the so-called "traitors" who operated the country for 20 years, Stevenson replied:

"They must have been. As long as the charge is all-inclusive, it includes an awful lot of Republicans as well as Democrats. It would also include General Eisenhower, for he was serving at that time too."

A GREAT TEXAN

A great Texan died the other day. His grandfather Maverick put his name on the "Maverick" steer that jumps herds and wanders at will over the plains; and Maury Maverick, his grandson, was just as free, just as independent and just as fearless as either his grandfather or the steers on which he puts his name.

Maverick died an early death because he was always in the front line of every battle. He died an early political death because he took on the big power companies, the big oil companies, the big racketeers—people who had plenty of money to defeat him for re-election.

And he died physically last week because he came out of World War I, his breast covered with ribbons and his body covered with wounds. A hole as big as his fist remained in his back. He was too far out in front in France as he was in politics.

Those who suffer from cancer probably don't know it, but it was Maury Maverick, a vigorous young congressman from Texas, who in the New Deal days, pioneered the first government appropriation for cancer research. His legislation set up the Cancer Institute.

He campaigned for the Tennessee Valley, for submergence, back nearly 20 years ago when the going was tough. And he crusaded for 50,000 planes and 100,000 pilots three years before Pearl Harbor when people scoffed at such fantastic, unneeded goals.

And being out in the front line of political battle, the big interests of Texas knocked him off when he came up for re-election. After that he became mayor of San Antonio, and along the little muddy river that runs through the heart of that sprawling Spanish city, you will find today a great monument to Maury Maverick.

It doesn't bear his name. Later generations may forget that he ever had any connection with it. But Maury Maverick transformed the slums along the sluggish San Antonio River into a replica of an old Spanish village and one of the most beautiful spots in Texas.

Maury has been out of politics in these later years. He sat like Ty Cobb or Babe Ruth on the sidelines while Texas went Republican, while the reactionaries ate high-on-the-hog in Austin, while the oil men financed McCarthy in Washington. And he was discouraged. But when I saw him in San Antonio a few weeks ago he reported that a first glimmer of light was coming back to Texas. Just as that glimmer came over the political horizon of the Texas plains Maury Maverick died.

New Road To Civil Defense Opened In Highway Building

LOS ANGELES FREEWAY SYSTEM, shown here in airview of downtown interchange setup, is described by FCDA Administrator Val Peterson as close to ideal for best civil defense of a city.

By DOUGLAS LARSEN

WASHINGTON —(NEA)—The new law which provides a billion dollars of U. S. funds for highway construction is expected to be a major boost to the revised civil defense plan for evacuating cities in case of bombing attacks.

When hydrogen bomb tests at the Eniwetok Proving Grounds in the Pacific demonstrated the fantastically destructive force of thermonuclear weapons, Federal Civil Defense Administration abandoned its earlier shelter program.

FCDA officials reasoned it would be impossible to try to keep people in damaged or threatened cities because they would flee for safety regardless of regulations or rules.

Although mass evacuation will not be a part of the nationwide civil defense test on June 14, FCDA experts now believe the civil defense of a city must include means of getting people out of the downtown target area as quickly as possible.

This, of course, requires good, wide streets leading out of the hearts of cities. And in passing the new highway aid bill Congressmen took special notice of this need.

Including state funds, the new law will result in close to $300 million being spent next year in U. S. cities on improving arterial streets. Under the law they must be part of any civil defense evacuation plan. U. S. Public Roads Commissioner Francis V. duPont, the man in charge of administering the new law, says:

"In authorizing the expenditure of this money, Public Roads will cooperate fully with Federal Civil Defense Administration in working toward a system of marked highways which will be completely integrated with civil defense evacuation plans."

In aiding the overall civil defense network the bill also will result in more than one-half billion dollars being spent on primary highways connecting with the city evacuation streets.

"It doesn't do any good to have a perfect evacuation plan for a city which ends up with traffic jams at the city limits," says FCDA Administrator Val Peterson.

His staff is working on proposed street plans for those U. S. cities which are considered prime targets of possible Russian bomber attacks. The idea is to designate the main thoroughfares as those which will be the main lanes of escape.

In an emergency, traffic will all be directed one way along them and persons will move on foot or in any vehicle they can find to a designated outer perimeter around the center of the city. At points on the perimeter, special transportation will be provided for evacuation outside the city, if everything goes according to plan.

Peterson recognizes the fact that the money in the new highway bill will barell give U. S. cities a start toward an ideal system of escape routes. The perfect city street for this purpose, he believes, is one so wide that it cannot be cut off by collapsing buildings. His experts are now making studies to determine just what this width must be.

For the long run, in this regard, Peterson would change both the standard street specifications and the building codes. Streets would have to be extremely wide. And contractors would be limited to erecting structures which could not topple across them.

Peterson cites Los Angeles, Calif., and Darmstadt, Germany, as two cities which are approaching the ideal in their city planning.

"The new Los Angeles freeway system which is being built is close to what I want to see for best civil defense," he says.

The Darmstadt plan which his experts have under study includes huge "fire alleys" crisscrossing the city. Darmstadt was severely damaged by Allied bombers during World War II and was partially burned out.

In rebuilding the city the planners have been especially conscious of what happened and are providing wide lanes to try to minimize destruction in the event of more aerial raids.

Good Evening...

By CLINT DUNATHAN

FOR EVERYBODY — Newspapers attempt, apparently with little success, to be fair, impartial and objective in their reporting of the news.

In certain departments of news coverage, however, they are expected to be enthusiastic as well as informative. One of these is in the field of tourist attractions.

If there is good fishing in the area, the newspaper is expected to give it the full-blown treatment, assuring the world that there were never more or bigger fish to be caught than those in—well, Delta County.

Which brings us to the point of this item: That persons engaged in the tourist and resort business look askance at any mention of good fishing except that in their own backyards.

This may not be completely reasonable or quite logical but it does represent one of the tribulations in the newspaper's effort to be fair to everybody.

NOT LUDINGTON STREET—Arriving now at another point in our discourse, let us report that walleye fishermen (and the folks who supply the visiting fishermen with boats, bait, housing and advice) are a sensitive crew.

They have their favorite places to fish and they go there—but these places range all the way from Big Bay to Misery Bay along Delta County's more than 200 miles of shoreline.

And apropos of walleye fishing is the anonymous communication that follows: "Escanaba Press:

"Be original. Don't try and steal somebody's else's thunder. For Escanaba to try and leave the impression that you can catch walleyes on Ludington Street is bad business."

"The people of Wisconsin, Indiana and Ohio know where the walleyes are to be caught. Visit Rapid River anytime after the season opens and you will see where most of the fishermen headquarter."

"That's why Diz Trout on Tuesday night mentioned the good walleye fishing at Rapid River."

ALWAYS BOOSTING—For the uninitiated, Mr. Trout is a former baseball player now to be heard in radio commentary of the Detroit Tigers baseball games, who comes to this area to hunt and fish.

Certainly everyone appreciates Mr. Trout's interest in this land of blue skies, healthful recreation and fine fishing.

By the same token, the local newspapers are equally faithful to the area and promote its tourist attractions with pictures and stories. Many of these stories also appear in newspapers in Detroit, Milwaukee and Chicago—sent out by the local newspapers.

But what does the local newspaper get for its trouble? A considerable amount of criticism for mentioning one area in the county where the fishing happens to be best at a particular season of the year.

IT DOES VARY — Contrary to the general information circulated for the benefit of the visiting fishermen, there are times when the fishing in some sections of Delta County is downright lousy.

When the fishing is good in one area, the newspaper publicizes it; when it is bad there, the newspaper is discreetly silent.

At opening of the walleye season in the spring, the Masonville-Rapid River area at the head of Little Bay de Noc is listed as the best place to fish. The run at the head of Big Bay de Noc opens a few days later.

Then (for reasons known only to the walleyes) they begin hitting at points farther south on the Green Bay shore—Breezy Point, Ford River and Misery Bay.

In quick explanation, let us add that the fishing continues good at all of these places throughout the remainder of the season.

The perch run at Garden, which attracts hundreds of fishermen, is another important event on the fisherman's calendar. But later in the season the jumbos go somewhere else.

And in small print (to avoid criticism) let us add that Gladstone has good fishing—and so does Escanaba.

May It Rest In Peace

REPORTS from the capital say government planners intend to oppose any revival of the excess profits tax should war come again to the United States. That makes sense.

The evidence never has supported those who advocate this tax as a way of "drafting capital" in wartime to match the "draft of our young men." What the tax does is put a premium upon corporate spending, for advertising and the like, to prevent the piling up of extra profits.

Furthermore, it leads to countless complaints under the inevitable "hardship" clauses. Years after World War II these were still being adjudicated in large numbers.

Experts in wartime taxation are convinced more is accomplished by simply raising general corporate taxes and by providing adequate for the "renegotiation" of war contracts—permitting the government to recapture excess gains where contracts are let before costs can be properly estimated.

EPT is a political tax idea with little merit. It is dead and ought to stay dead.

Words, Wit & Wisdom

By William Morris

Today's word game is designed to test your ability to recognize words opposite to one another in meaning. Below you will find two groups of ten words each. The first group is numbered 1, 2, 3, etc. The second is lettered A, B, C, etc.

For each word in the first group you will find a word of almost the opposite meaning (an antonym) in the second group. Thus the word numbered 1 may mean practically the opposite of the word lettered F. Write this down as 1F. When you have written down all the answers, check against the correct pairings at the bottom.

How large is your vocabulary? How many thousands of words can you use with confidence? For the answers to these questions, just send a self-addressed stamped envelope to William Morris, in care of this paper, for a free copy of his new self-scoring vocabulary test. It will show you how many words you now know and how to increase your word power almost immediately.

Amos Had Words for Us to Heed

By WILLIAM E. GILROY, D. D.

The prophet of righteousness was Amos, the herdsman, or farmer, who prophesied in the kingdom of Israel in the eighth century before Christ.

That is a long time ago, but it is amazing now acutely and pointedly most of what was essential in the prophecies of Amos applies to much in the life of today, even in the democracies in which modern life is at its best.

We might easily imagine a modern farmer, thoughtful and intelligent, like farmers I have known, coming into the complex life of a modern city, or a national capital.

We can imagine him becoming "a prophet in Babylon," aroused to indignation and denunciation by the dishonesty and corruption, the gambling and parasitism of those who make no real contribution to prosperity and welfare, but who live by exploiting what others do contribute.

One may easily become unduly pessimistic in considering the recent revelations of dishonesty and corruption, even in high places. Consider the immense ramifications of gambling and other evils.

Consider the widespread immoral and weak attitude of the many people in ordinary life without whose interest and support all such agencies could not function or flourish.

This in itself is cause for reflection. Such evils could not exist, or prosper, if there were not the demand. To that extent the indictment of prophets like Amos is against society as a whole.

But, remembering always the "seven thousand who have not bowed the knee to Baal," it is nevertheless somewhat appalling to realize the extent to which the evils that Amos denounced exist after nearly three thousand years in modern society.

What were these evils that so aroused the herdsman prophet? A commentator has remarked that though the Book of Amos is short "the picture of a time of moral anarchy is complete."

The sins were the characteristic sins of a time of great outward prosperity—the wealthy extravagance and luxurious living of some, in contrast with the poverty of others.

The righteous sold for a pair of shoes, fines unjustly extorted, the oppression of the weak by the strong.

Open and shameless immorality, with the corruption of women as a deep and underlying factor in the unholy catalogue. Yet, deeper even, and beneath it all, was the failure of religion, formal in outward observances but lacking in moral and spiritual reality.

Such a charge could be brought against the religious forces of today only with great reservations. The greatest hope for the future of society and the peace of the world is the Christian church. But when one observes churches crowded at Easter, and many empty pews the following Sunday, it is possible to be far too complacent about the quality and effectiveness of the Christianity we profess.

An Amos may have a message for the church, as well as for evil-minded and the socially delinquent.

Refund Of $5,300,000 Taxes Asked By GM

INDIANAPOLIS (AP)—The Indiana Gross Income Tax Division planned to fight a move by General Motors Corp. seeking a tax refund of $5,300,000.

General Motors is seeking refund of taxes paid on material produced in the state for the armed services during 1951, 1952 and 1953.

The suit is similar to one filed recently by Bendix Aviation Corp. at South Bend asking refund of $650,000. Frank T. Millis, state auditor and revenue commissioner, said no action will be

Tragedy Strikes Jet Show; 5 Dead

MEMPHIS (AP)—The "show went on" unofficially at the Memphis Naval Air Station today, shrouded in a pall of sadness cast by the crash of a jet fighter that killed five persons.

The faster than sound F7U Cutlass blazed like a ball of fire through the station's aviation mechanic's school Friday, leaving dead the pilot, three chief petty officers and a civilian secretary.

The crash came less than an hour before the station opened its annual three-day festival and air show. The Cutlass was flown to the base from Dallas, Tex., especially for the event.

Navy brass called off the air show Friday, but today planes dating from World War I Spads to sleek jets took to the air.

The Cutlass, piloted by World War II ace Robert Woolverton, 33-year-old lieutenant stationed at Dallas, made a "beautiful takeoff" and banked to the left as it reached about 300 feet, using its normal jet power.

"Then, suddenly," said a veteran pilot who witnessed the crash, "the pilot switched to the afterburners, which is not normal procedure by any means. The plane never recovered from its bank, but seemed to plunge sideways and downward . . ."

Army Pfc. Jerome L. Wester, 18, of Chatham, recently spent a seven-day rest and recuperation leave in Hakata, Japan. Wester is normally stationed in Korea as a radio operator in Headquarters Battery of the 76th Anti-Aircraft Artillery Battalion. He arrived overseas last October.

Kenneth E. Taylor, storekeeper third class, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eli Taylor of Schaffer, Mich., returned to Newport, R. I., last week in May aboard the radar picket destroyer USS Newmen K. Perry after a five-month tour of duty with the U. S. Sixth Fleet in the Mediterranean. During the cruise the Perry took part in fleet training exercises with U. S. units and with ships of NATO countries. The Perry visited ports in Sicily, Greece and Spain, where her "sailor diplomats" engaged in athletic competition with foreign teams, gave parties for orphans, and held open house.

Crop Control Fails To Halt Growing Surplus Of Wheat

By OVID A. MARTIN
WASHINGTON (AP)—A federal crop control program is failing to halt the accumulation of a bigger surplus of wheat.

An Agriculture Department report indicated Thursday that this year's wheat harvest may add another 100 million bushels to a record surplus or reserve supply of 875 million bushels stored from past crops, most of it under government price supports.

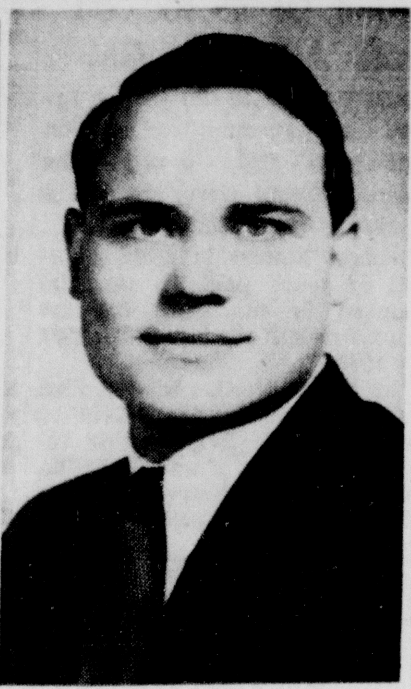

A wheat control program set up for this year's wheat crop called for a 20 per cent reduction in plantings. The program carries heavy penalties for growers selling more than sales quotas allotted them.

But a crop of one billion bushels, or 15 per cent less than last year's production, is now forecast for 1954. Except for drought in some important wheat-producing areas, particularly in the Southwest, this year's crop would have been larger.

Growers soon will be asked by Secretary of Agriculture Benson to take a further cut in production. Smaller planting allotments and sales quotas will be proposed for the 1955 crop. Congress set this year's planting allotment at 62½ million acres compared with 78 million planted for the 1953 crop. Benson is expected to set the 1955 allotment at 55 million acres.

Benson must submit his 1955 marketing quota program to a grower referendum by July 24. Approval by at least two-thirds of those voting is required. This year's program was approved by 87 per cent.

A major reason why it is difficult for production controls to get growers down to size of markets is the fact that export markets have been shrinking in recent years.

Nixon's Car Hit; No One Injured

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Vice President Richard M. Nixon's automobile was struck Friday night by a swerving automobile which then collided head-on with a secret service car following it.

No one was hurt. Nixon, after a three or four-minute delay in which he walked back across the intersection to ascertain that no one had been injured, proceeded to his parents' home in nearby Whittier.

Nixon had arrived by plane and was en route in a three-car caravan to his parents' home. He speaks today at a commencement exercise of Whittier College, his alma mater. Mrs. Nixon said the left rear tail light of Nixon's car was knocked askew and the bumper was dented in.

"It was a fairly solid jolt," he said.

President Pledges To Continue Fight Against Subversion

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH
WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower pledged Thursday night to stay "everlastingly" at the job of uprooting subversion, and appealed for political unity on his legislative program—including his embattled flexible farm price support plan.

In a nationwide television and radio address, the President turned to the language of the atomic world and urged:

"Let us have less political fission and more political fusion."
Cheered By Crowd

And he called for speedy approval by Congress of a program he described as a "potent package of protection against communism."

He addressed some 1,000 members and friends of the Citizens for Eisenhower Congressional Committee. When he concluded, his World War II mess sergeant, Marty Snyder, jumped to his feet and bellowed:

"Who are we going to elect in 1956?"
"Eisenhower!" the crowd roared back. The President grinned.

The more immediate job of the citizens committee—organized in 1952 to woo Democratic and independent votes to the Eisenhower presidential banner—is to try to increase the November elections the slim margin by which the Republicans now control Congress.

The President's speech was his first full-scale plug for his legislative program.
Good For America
He was interrupted 32 times by applause with the biggest demonstrations coming when he:

1. Promised to "keep" everlastingly at the job of uprooting subversion wherever it may be found." He said he felt he was not being egotistical in saying, "Every American believes that of me."

2. Declared with respect to his controversial plan to shift from rigid to flexible lower-level farm price supports that he is "completely unmoved by arguments as to what constitutes good or winning politics." He said he has been told by many that the farm plan—already once voted down by the House Agriculture Committee—is not good politics in an election year.

Even though he has not been in politics very long, he said, "I know that what is right for America is politically right."

He ticked off progress on appropriation bills, highway construction legislation, tax cuts, approval of the St. Lawrence seaway project and ratification of a mutual security treaty with South Korea.

"But much still remains which is of vital importance to every American citizen," he declared.

Most of his address dealt with domestic affairs, such as the farm program, tax revision and proposed legislation which he termed the administration's "potent package of protection against communism."

Vital Bills Listed
On the domestic side, he urged enactment of his tax revision program, saying it is designed to assure a fairer distribution of the tax burden. The bill has been passed by the House and will come up for Senate action soon.

He also prodded the lawmakers for conclusive action on extension of unemployment insurance, expansion of social security coverage and an increase in benefits, the administration's health and housing programs, and a broader plan for rehabilitation of disabled people.

As for the "potent package of protection against communism," he appealed for approval of bills which would:

Plug loopholes through which he said spies and subversives now can slip; bar proven subversives from jobs in defense-essential plants; strip citizenship from those hereafter convicted of advocacies or attempting violent overthrow of the government; tighten the penalty for harboring fugitive Communist leaders; authorize use of wiretap evidence "under adequate safeguards" in federal court security cases; and grant immunity from self-incrimination to selected witnesses.

About 110 friends and relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Gustave Roberts signed the "Guest Book" Tuesday afternoon at the open house held at their home in honor of their golden wedding anniversary.

Mrs. William J. Miller served the beautifully decorated three-tiered cake. Mrs. Conrad Johnson poured. The table was attractively decorated with flowers and candles in keeping with the occasion. The Roberts received many lovely gifts in memory of the occasion.

Donna Mae Davis, William J. Arnold United In Marriage

HERMANVILLE (AP)—The First Methodist Church was the setting for the marriage of Miss Donna Mae Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Davis of Hermansville, to William J. Arnold, son of the William Arnolds, also of Hermansville. The Rev. John Larson officiated at the 2 p. m. nuptial service June 5.

Soloist for the ceremony was Mrs. John Beaudry, who sang "I Love You Truly" and "On This Day Oh Beautiful Mother", with the accompaniment of Mrs. Richard Lungerhausen at the piano. Large bouquets of apple blossoms adorned the church.

Gown of Tulle and Satin
A gown of white nylon lace and nylon tulle over satin was worn by the bride. The gown was styled with a bouffant skirt from which a cathedral length train extended. Her fingertip veil was held by a can style headpiece. She carried a bouquet of calla lilies and stephanotis.

Maid of honor, Miss Joyce Davis, a sister of the bride, and the bridegroom's sister, Miss Sharon Arnold, as bridesmaid, wore similar gowns of yellow and light blue. They carried colonial bouquets of yellow and white carnations. A niece of the bride, little Miss Darlene Keiselman, was the flower girl.

Acting as best man for Mr. Arnold was his brother, Glenn Arnold. William Davis Jr. ushered the guests to their seats. Ring-bearer was a nephew of the bride, Dennis Kirschner.

Evening Reception
Mrs. Davis attended her daughter's wedding attired in a lavender dress with white accessories, while the bridegroom's mother wore a dress of white and lavender print. They both wore corsages of yellow and white carnations.

A reception for 200 guests was held at Fleetwood's Inn, Spalding, at 6 p. m. The newlyweds, both graduates of Hermansville High School, are making their home at Hermansville.

Out-of-town wedding guests attended from Iron Mountain, Ontonagon, Escanaba, Green Bay, Milwaukee, Appleton, Chicago, Menominee and Powers.

Uranium Allocated To Michigan U. For Nuclear Research
ANN ARBOR (AP)—The Atomic Energy Commission has approved allocation of uranium to the University of Michigan for one of the world's most powerful nuclear research reactors.

President Harlan Hatcher said today the university now may proceed with construction and operation of the reactor.

Construction is expected to begin this fall. Hatcher told alumni on campus for the 110th commencement.

Hatcher said he had been notified of the approval in a letter from Lewis L. Strauss, AEC chairman.

The research reactor will be built with a grant of $1,000,000 from the Ford Motor Co. Fund to the Michigan Memorial-Phoenix Project, the university's wartime memorial dedicated to peaceful uses of atomic energy.

The grant is expected to cover the entire cost of the reactor and a special building in which it will be housed on the north campus.

The reactor will serve primarily as a source of neutrons and gamma rays, Hatcher said. He said it would serve a three-fold purpose:

1—It will be used to teach the design, theory and operation of reactors.

2—It will help to expand and broaden the university's own research program in such areas as biology, medicine, metallurgy, physics, chemistry, engineering, etc.

3—It will be available for industrial and governmental research on a contract basis.

The reactor will be located in a re-enforced concrete building. It will be open for inspection, subject only to restrictions necessary for public safety.

Single-Handed US Intervention Ruled Out In Indochina

"might justify intervention":

1. An invitation "from the present lawful authorities," which presumably means the governments of France and the Indochinese states—Laos, Cambodia and Viet Nam.

2. A clear assurance by France of complete independence for the three Indochinese states.

3. A demonstration of "evidence of concern" about the Indochinese situation by the United Nations. Dulles did not specify what he meant by this, but possibly the fact that the U.N. Security Council has already voted to take up the problem of this condition.

4. Participation in "the collective effort of some of the other nations of the area." Here again Dulles did not spell out what he had in mind.

5. An assurance by the French government "that France will not itself withdraw from the battle until it is won." In the terms in which he was speaking he presumably referred to the battle for "restoring tranquility" in Indochina.

Make A Boys' Room Shipshape On Budget

By VIVIAN BROWN

Little boys need room to stretch their legs. When two young lads share a room there is no reason why they should stumble over each other and be reminded constantly to keep the room shipshape. Little shavers who play with mud, insects and animals outdoors hardly should be expected to act like Little Lord Funtleroy when they cross the threshold to their bedroom.

Smart and considerate mothers will choose good washable fabrics in plaid stripe or another perky pattern for bedcovers and window draperies. They'll put inexpensive fiber rugs on the floors, and use sturdy but chic budget furniture.

Bunk beds are ideal space savers for a boys' room. Corduroy in masculine color schemes such as plaid in shades of brown on a maize ground, teamed with maize curtains that match the background color of the spread are typical of the handsome combinations that can be tailored even by amateurs.

Youth size beds 36 in. by 72 in. long may be furnished with attractive coverlets in jiffy time. All you do is get two widths of 36-inch corduroy in a 108-inch length, giving ample tuck-in for the pillow and a good drape at the foot of the bed. If the beds are stacked, the upper spread can be tucked in and the lower one allowed to drape, or both can be tucked in.

Seam the lengths together, hemming the two ends. Put the spreads on the bed to locate where the white cotton fringe is to go. Pin the fringe in place so that it outlines the edge of the mattress. Mark locations for corner slits in the foot of the spread. Remove and check measurements for accuracy, then stitch fringe and put the narrowest of hems in the slits.

For curtains use two widths of the desired length, one inch longer than the distance from the top of the curtain rod to the bottom of the window apron. Stitch three rows of cotton fringe across the bottom of each length—multi-color braid gives a nice decorative touch and ties the curtains and bedspread together nicely. Finish the tops of the curtains with pleating tape stitched on the wrong side. Insert the pleating hooks and you're finished.

Spreads and curtains made of corduroy which is preshrunk and fast color may be washed repeatedly if a gentle laundering method is used. When almost dry the corduroy should be brushed vigorously with a clean clothes brush to raise the pile.

FOR A COUPLE OF COWBOYS — These bunk beds may be stacked or used as twin beds.

Signers Of Bingo Bill Petition Disqualified

LANSING (AP) — One-fifth of the original 150,000 petition signatures submitted to place a charity bingo amendment on the November ballot have been disqualified by the Department of State.

Charles R. MacLean of Lansing, attorney for the Michigan Association of Charitable Organizations seeking to raise the necessary 287,000 signatures by July 2, said, however:

"We have not given up. We will keep trying right to the last minute."

He said the disqualified names had been almost made up by the filing of 27,519 new names. This raises the total of presumably valid signatures to 148,345, he said.

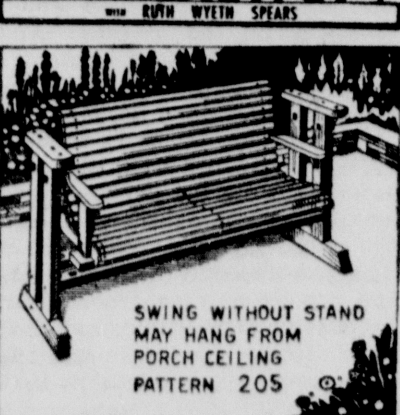

The disqualified names, he reported, were signed in the wrong localities. Residents of five different communities had signed the same petition in some cases, he said.

HOMES FOR AMERICANS

AP Newsfeatures THE ADD-A-ROOM campaign for enlarging homes centers attention on the advantages of planning a house for expansion. Here is a plan for a house that can grow with a family. It is easily constructed in stages. The main part of the house can be built with expansion attic. The breezeway and garage can be added when desired. The extra bedrooms and second bathroom upstairs can be finished when needed. If in the future more house is required, the breezeway and garage are readily convertible into rooms. This is Plan B-2442 by Alvin Cassens Jr., architect, 145 So. Franklin Ave., Valley Stream, N. Y. Building estimates can be based on the main part of the house covering 1,170 square feet. ## Air Filters Become Important In Home

AIR FILTERS have become very important items of equipment in modern homes. They are more important than window screens in houses that are air conditioned. They save a lot on housework and add a lot of comfort in homes with circulating warm air heat. They strain dust, dirt and pollen out of the air, but they have to be renewed for maximum efficiency.

Replacing an air filter in a warm air heating plant or air conditioner is about as simple as putting a new bag in the garbage can. And most filters are cheap, costing about the same as a carton of cigarettes. The reason you have to change them is that less and less air will pass through them as they trap dust and dirt. You can't get your money's worth in heat or in cooling with a choked up filter.

So this is a good season to put in new filters. The smart man has his heating plant cleaned and readied for fall as soon as the heating season has ended. This minimizes corrosion from accumulated soot. And with several million room air conditioners now in use, it's wise to keep them at top efficiency.

MOST DISPOSABLE air filters are pads of glass fibers coated with dust-catching adhesives. There are at least five manufacturers of this type, so they are easy to find. Then there are two or three makes of paper filters. All you have to do to determine your type and size is to look at it and read the label. Between 85 and 90 per cent of all filters in use are disposable.

When a salesman says that air conditioning will help to relieve hay fever and other respiratory troubles, he's talking about the constant air filtering that takes place. Yet few owners of air conditioning units realize this. Even one-room window type air conditioners contain filters.

Upper Peninsula Lions Clubs Boast Record Of Service To Communities

Upper Peninsula Lions, opening a three-day convention in Escanaba today, represent an organization that is the largest service club of its kind in the Upper Peninsula. There are 61 Lions Clubs in the Upper Peninsula with a combined membership of 2,226.

That should not be surprising, however, as Lions International is in itself the largest service club of its kind in the world, boasting more than a half million members in 11,000 clubs located in 58 countries.

Lions Clubs, like other civic clubs, are dedicated to community service. That is their main objective in existence. The work that Lions do in the Upper Peninsula for community benefit is tremendous. Although the No. 1 project of all Lions Clubs is in the field of sight saving and giving assistance to the blind, that is only a small phase of their achievements.

Community Projects

In many of the smaller communities of the Upper Peninsula, the Lions Club serves as a Chamber of Commerce and in others, where there is an existing Chamber of Commerce, the Lions Club gives strength and assistance to the Chamber program.

Lions build playgrounds, finance Boy Scout and Girl Scout troops, promote and help support projects designed in the public interest. The Sault Ste. Marie Lions Club, for instance, only recently contributed $25,000 for band instruments and band equipment. Brimley Lions built a community building and town hall. Gwinn Lions purchased an ambulance for their community and then built a building to house the ambulance.

Marquette Lions give six Northern Michigan College scholarships annually to two graduates of each of the three high schools in that community. L'Anse Lions spark-plugged a project for construction of a new hospital. Escanaba Lions provided much of the equipment for the sight saving class in the public schools. These are only a few of the achievements of Upper Peninsula Lions.

Provide Glasses To Needy

The sight saving projects of the Lions Clubs surprisingly enough are the least publicized. Buying glasses for handicapped children, providing operations when necessary, and in other ways assisting those who are in need of sight correction are projects that are accomplished without fanfare. But they constitute important welfare work in every community.

Upper Peninsula Lions also have a scholarship loan fund of their own and students of any recognized Upper Michigan college—Northern Michigan, Suomi College, Michigan Tech, Soo Tech or Ironwood Junior College may apply for financial assistance.

Upper Michigan Lions also help in the financial support of the Leader Dog school at Rochester, Mich., a project that was started by Michigan Lions.

10 Delta County Clubs

Delta County has more Lions Clubs than any other county in the Upper Peninsula—10. They are Gladstone, Rock, Perkins, Cornell, Rapid River, Garden, Escanaba, Wells, Ford River and Bark River. Escanaba is the oldest of these, having been chartered in 1934.

The oldest Lions Club in the Upper Peninsula is Marquette, chartered in 1919. Newberry is second, organized in 1923. Then followed Lake Linden in 1924. Escanaba was fourth in 1934 and from that point on the growth has been rapid. Nine clubs were organized during the past year and 13 clubs were chartered the year previous.

The Lions motto is "Liberty-Intelligence-Our Nation's Safety," the letters of the name forming the first letters of the words in the motto.

The Upper Peninsula district of Lions International is District 10, the growth of Lions Clubs in the Upper Peninsula has been so responsive that one of the important issues to come before the convention this year is whether to divide the district into two areas, each served by its own district governor. The district governor is required to make an official visit to every club at least once during his year of office. That is a distinct problem with 61 clubs and with only 52 weeks in the year.

Waldo A. McCrea, Marquette, is the present district governor and Alden S. Clark, Marquette, is cabinet secretary-treasurer. Walter G. Wilson, St. Ignace, is immediate past governor, and deputy district governors are Malcolm McIver, Brimley; Oral Thompson, Cornell; Lenwood Kell, Menominee; Leonard McDonald, Watersmeet; Arnold Kananan, Lake Linden.

Yacht Basin And Escanaba Club Give Impetus To Enthusiasm For Boating

Excellent natural facilities and efficient use of manpower have converted the Escanaba yacht basin into one of the most beautiful as well as safest spots on Lake Michigan for the sport of boating.

Sandbars and rocks at one time marred the development of the local harbor as a playground for boat lovers but the yacht basin came into being during the WPA days of the depression years. The harbor was dredged, boat stalls and docks erected and other improvements made by WPA crews.

Today it is a wonderland for tourists as well as for local yachtsmen. Each year at least 50 yachts visit the harbor from other cities.

Organized 20 Years Ago

The Escanaba Yacht Club was organized 20 years ago. At that time eligibility to membership was restricted to those who owned boats and, of course, the club roster was small indeed. This policy remained for 17 years but three years ago, membership was opened to all interested in yachting or boatsmanship. Club membership rose sharply.

At the time policies were changed, the erection of a club house was started. It is still being enlarged and can accommodate approximately 100 people. The club house is often used for social events by members such as smorgasbords, suppers, card parties and sometimes a dance.

Marine railway facilities to bring boats out of the water onto the beach and for relaunching have also been installed by the city.

The club has a vigorous program outlined for this summer, and one of the main activities is the "Mitchell Trophy Series." It's main purpose is to provide races for children in prams.

Pram Is Popular

A pram is a boat approximately seven feet long and has a seating capacity of either two children or one adult. The pram is a simple boat to maneuver and introduces to the children the sport of sailing while at the same time teaches them good sportsmanship and safety. A boat handling course is also held for them. The pram is designed to be very safe and it is sailed primarily within the shelter of the Yacht Basin.

Today the club claims 58 memberships, both individual and family. To be a member, the only requirement is to be favorably voted on by the board of directors. The board consists of Commodore Russell Johnson, Vice Commodore Harold Gasman and Secretary-Treasurer John Mitchell. The directors of the Yacht Club are Everett Cole, Frank St. Martin, John Hebert and Dr. I. H. Wood.

The cost of membership is $5.00 per year for one membership, which can be either an individual or family. There is no initiation fees or added assessments.

Non-Profit Club

The club is strictly a non-profit organization and is interested only in the betterment and promotion of the sport of boating, according to Commodore Johnson.

"We want to educate the children in the sport and at the same time teach them safety and good sportsmanship which can be applied to any other sport," he added.

The main purpose of the Yacht Club is to promote the use of an almost natural harbor within easy reach for both residents and visitors, Johnson said.

This is evidenced by the program of activities as set by the club for this summer. The races and other events for the 1954 season are as follows: June 16, first race of the Gust Asp Trophy series; July 3, second race Gust Asp Trophy series; July 15, the Sunset Sailing party; July 17 Sail and Power event to Fayette and July 20, 21, and 22 is the final race for the Gust Asp Trophy with the eliminations for the Gessner Trophy (prams) following.

On August 1 is the Midsummer Regatta and on Aug. 2 are the finals for the Gessner Trophy, pre-cruising race with supper at the club house.

School Insurance Pays On Accidents

KALAMAZOO, Mich. (P) — The Kalamazoo Board of Education adopted a low cost insurance plan covering accidents to children at school or en route to classes. Parents pay a $1 yearly premium for each child.

A day after the policies went into effect, Marilyn Joan Walsh, a high school student, was injured in a gymnasium accident. Her policy paid hospital bills during several days' treatment for a dislocated knee.

Later John Wesley Phillips, 6, was fatally injured when struck by a car on his way to classes. His policy paid a $1,000 death benefit.

Court Delayed For Blood Donation

WAYNESBORO, Va. (P) — Kenneth R. Givens, a juror, was listening to the evidence in a case in corporation court, when there was an urgent message for him. There was an emergency and Givens was the only citizen the hospital knew who had a needed type of blood. Judge C. G. Quesberry recessed court an hour at Givens request. When he returned the jurors made him foreman.

'Trout For Sale' Means You Catch Your Own On Private Pond Near Rock

By MRS. ALBERT WELDUM

ROCK—Because of their fondness for fishing and hunting, the Ruohonen brothers, Albert, Edwin and Anselm, hit upon the idea of raising trout in the old quarry on their farm some four miles north of Rock on M-35. It is called the Ruohonen Bros. farm and trout hatchery and as far as is known, is the only farm in the Upper Peninsula which may propagate and sell brook trout, rainbow trout, German browns, salmon and steel head trout.

The sign by the road reads TROUT FOR SALE, but upon inquiry at the farmhouse, it is learned that one may have the pleasure of fishing for his own fish for a nominal fee of 50c for a permit. No trout are sold otherwise. No other license is needed which makes it ideal especially for out of state fishermen who may fish only that one time and probably haven't the outfit or the time to go hiking in the woods and streams.

Upon obtaining a permit, one has the privilege of fishing all day for bass, suckers and perch. Upon catching a trout, an additional 50c has to be paid for each trout, six trout being the limit in one day.

Bill of Sale Issued

The bass, suckers and perch have been planted as feed for the trout; the only drawback is that the bass will eat the trout spawn.

Because Michigan law requires that a report be made by all those catching trout in a private pond, a bill of sale is issued with a catch of trout. The brothers also need a permit from the game warden of the state to give fingerlings to any person.

When the road commission dug stone to repair M-35 back in 1924, they left a hole in the ground about 200 by 400 feet and some 27 feet deep. A spring from underneath filled the hole with clear fresh water. In considering what they could use the old quarry for, the brothers decided they would try raising fish as a hobby. After trying some bass first, which multiplied fast, they decided to try trout.

Trout Planted In 1939

In 1939 the Hudson Trout Hatchery from Hudson, Wis., delivered 1000 trout in a tank truck, and another shipment of 1500 trout was planted in 1940. These trout were from 7-14 inches in length.

At first a permit allowed one to fish for only half a day, but the time was extended to the whole day as the fish in the pond increased. When the trout were first planted they also required feeding of ground meat or liver. They were especially fond of liver, cheese and surprisingly enough, peanut butter.

Albert, the one who cares for the fish, says that two trout will fight over which will get in the jar first to get at the peanut butter. The water is very clear and three sides have a drop straight down, while on one end it is shallow. Asked if there have been any accidents, the brothers will tell you that only once a five year old boy from Indiana became so excited about a fish his father caught that he fell in and the father had to jump in after him and pull him out.

Light Attracts Flies

A wire has been strung across the pond with an electric bulb in the center of the pond. When bugs fly around the lights, the trout will jump out of the water to feed on them. They have been known to kill themselves by trying to swallow a bass backward and choking on it.

Once a wild duck had her brood of ducklings in the pond, but Al noticed that the ducklings were disappearing one by one. When a fisherman from Escanaba caught a trout with a duckling inside, the mystery was solved.

Fish as large as 18 inch rainbow trout, 19 inch brown trout and 14 inch bass have been taken from the pond. Because of steel heads spawning in the fall in addition to spring spawning, the fishing closes at the Ruohonen farm on Labor day and opens sometime in April.

Heavy Ice In Winter

To make trout come to the surface, Al will throw bread on the water. Mixing the water will bring the steelhead to the surface. One may use flies and worms for fishing, but no live bait such as frogs or mice is permitted.

Ice will form up to 18 inches thick on the pond during the winter months, yet the pressure from the spring underneath will crack it with a sound like a rifle shot.

The three brothers live alone on the farm they used to live on when their parents were living. They love animals and also tend with care a variety of flowers they have indoors and out. Their chief occupation is farming and logging, but they have made fishing an interesting and profitable sideline.

Man, 49, To Deliver Papers

PULASKI, Va. (P) — Ronald Smith, a newspaper carrier boy, wanted to take a vacation but his delivery route posed a problem. C. M. Hayter, 39, a customer, offered the solution — he would handle 13-year-old Ronald's route and Ronald would mow his lawn an agreed number of times.

FISHING IS FUN—Bud Norman and Thorval Hansen are shown here pulling in a couple fish at the Ruohonen fish pond near Rock.

Eugene Hansen and Gilbert Norman are also fishing in the pond. All are from Lathrop.

Weather All Fouled Up? Well, You Can Blame Gulf Of Mexico

By RALPH KAZIATECK

A sudden break in weather conditions brought to an end this past week the coolest and most distasteful spring that old timers can recall in many years.

The question of where all the rain and cool weather came from is an ageless one to W. S. Kipper of the Escanaba Weather Bureau. His reply: "From the Gulf of Mexico."

Elaborating on what the Gulf of Mexico had to do with Escanaba's inclement weather he added, "It's the way the circulation of the air operates. The air has a natural tendency to always veer to the right in the Northern Hemisphere and the air at the Gulf has a tendency to wind up in the Illinois, Ohio and Wisconsin areas.

"The warm air in the Gulf is high, as elsewhere, but keeps circling toward the Ohio Valley area where the cold and warm air intermingles. This results in squalls, thunderstorms, hail and occasionally tornadoes. Escanaba happened to be on the outer rim of this area resulting in cool, cloudy, rainy weather."

The "Polar Front"

In a normal year a front, called the "polar front" which is an imaginary boundary line where the polar and tropical air meet, would be north of Escanaba by this time of the year, but not so this year.

This explanation was offered by Kipper regarding the May and June cold streaks. The Midwest rarely fails to have its spell of cold weather during May. It, in short, is the return of "Backslide" of coldness. In the United States, the Mississippi Valley averages colder in the winter than the Atlantic States, but in the spring the center of the continent heats up more quickly, tending to establish a pressure lower than that over the regions of Hudson Bay and eastern Canada, the Labrador Current and The Grand Banks, which are still cold from their snowfields and vast expanses of ice.

This cold air sometimes flows southwestward, down into the United States extending through New England, the middle Atlantic states, and the great central basin, including the Great Lakes and immediate areas. Chicago records show instances of a quickly shifting wind from the southwest to the north, the cold air sweeping over Lake Michigan, causing the fall of a mercury from 75 to 80 into the fifties.

There may be comfort in the thought that the air is warm enough about us no matter what season of the year, in comparison with some other places. One of the coldest inhabited spots on earth is Verkhoyansk in northeastern Siberia. There records indicate the temperature registered 90.4 below zero.

If you should be one of those persons who believes a change in the moon will effect a change in the weather, don't bet on it, advises Kipper. One of the most commonest of all mistaken weather beliefs is that a change in the moon means a change in the weather.

Kipper said, "In examining weather records, it is found that changes in the weather occur as often in between changes of the moon as during them."

verbs, however, that are sometimes fairly accurate, he pointed out, such as this one New Englanders are in the habit of saying, "If the wind blows from the southeast for 12 hours, it will rain in spite of hell." Usually it is true because an enduring southeast wind is a bringer of rain almost anywhere in the middle latitudes.

A more modern, popular thought on inclement weather is, "Those H-Bombs must be responsible." According to Mr. Kipper there is no relationship whatsoever. He commented, "No connection, either theoretically or through practical demonstration has been established."

Science Seeks To Learn If Mars Has Mountains

WASHINGTON—Explorers of a world 40 million miles away hope to discover this year whether there are mountains on Mars—and if not, why not.

At Lamont-Hussey Observatory in Bloemfontein, South Africa, astronomers of an American "Mars Expedition," sponsored by the National Geographic Society and Arizona's Lowell Observatory, now are probing such Martian mysteries. Their work is part of a coordinated worldwide study of earth's neighboring planet in 1954.

This is a year of a "near approach" of Mars. By June 2, the red planet's orbit will have brought it closer to the earth than it has been since 1941. During coming months, from Bloemfontein and at least 17 other observatories, men will be watching and photographing Mars around the clock.

Deserts and Polar Caps

Scientists are unsure about the presence of absence of mountains on Mars. They agree that there are deserts, vast areas of unchanging brick-red color that give the planet its reddish tint even to the naked eye. They know too that there are darker, blue-green areas, caused perhaps by living plants, such as lichens or moss, as well as white polar caps that grow and shrink with the Martian seasons.

There are no seas or oceans.

If mountains exist, it is felt they too should be covered with the white substance that rimes the polar regions. Temperatures would be colder on the heights. And mountains, or the lack of mountains, would be a key to the internal composition of the planet.

This question Dr. E. C. Slipher, leader of the Mars Expedition and an authority on the planets, hopes may be solved at Bloemfontein. By measuring the diameter of Mars more exactly than ever before, science may learn more about the planet's composition, and from that, whether mountain-building forces could have ridged its surface.

Mitchell Mountains

Other observatories working under coordination of the International Mars Committee, which met in Washington March 29, will attempt to observe Martian mountains directly. At Mount Palomar in California, Johns Hopkins University scientists will use the giant 200-inch Hale telescope to make temperature readings for various points on Mars.

Mountains constitute but one of many Martian questions being attacked. The planet's atmosphere, its climate, the possibility of plant life, all may yield new answers or evidence.

Adeleen Kyes Of Bath Is Bride Of Frank Sudac

St. Thomas Chapel in East Lansing, with vases holding white gladioli adorning its altar, was the setting for the wedding today of Miss Adeleen Kyes of Bath, Mich., and Frank Sudac. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kyes of Bath. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sudac Sr., of 1322 N. 16th St., Escanaba, are the bridegroom's parents.

The 10:30 a. m. service was solemnized by Father McEachen.

The bride's gown of nylon tulle over taffeta was styled with a fitted bodice of tulle with modified dolman sleeves and ending in deep points over the wrists and a natural necking with a narrow wing collar. The top of the bodice and collar were trimmed with white pasamenterie, leaf design. The extremely full bouffant skirt was fashioned with a deep yoke, edged in the leaf design, to which was attached a full flounce which flared into a wide chapel train. Attached to her illusion cap which was trimmed with small leaves to match the gown was her finger-tip length veil of imported French illusion. She carried a colonial cascading arrangement of shattered white carnations and English ivy with a shower of satin ribbons.

Identical Gowns

The floor length gowns of nylon tulle over matching taffeta worn by her attendants, the maid of honor's in lilac, and the four bridesmaids' of mint green, were identical. The narrow wing collars and cap sleeves of the fitted bodices were bound in taffeta.

Layers of tulle formed the full bouffant skirts. They wore matching tulle headpieces and carried colonial arrangements of a deeper tone of lilac with shower ribbons in contrasting shades.

Miss Zora Kyes was her sister's maid of honor. Bridesmaids were the Misses Loretta Hawks, Lanore Sklapy, Patricia Lentz and Janet Denstead.

Robert Kohoff of East Lansing was Mr. Sudac's best man. Edward Sealander of Toledo, Ohio, ushered with Kenneth Marvic and James Biehler of Escanaba and Walter Kyes of Bath.

Navy blue with white accessories was chosen by Mrs. Kyes for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. Sudac wore white accessories with her light blue ensemble. The mothers' corsages were orchids.

Afternoon Reception
The reception from 4 to 7 will be held at Pine Forest Lodge. Assisting in serving will be Mrs. Gladys Coulter, Nancy Thomas, Judy Baker, LaDonna Johnstone, Billie Morgan, Florence Lowe and Joanne Dolton.

The newlyweds will honeymoon two weeks in Northern Michigan and will be at home after June 25 at 13518 Webster Road in Bath.

Both Mr. Sudac and his bride received their degrees at Michigan State College.

Out-of-town wedding guests were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sudac and daughter, Mary, Mrs. C. E. Bartley, Donald and Melvin Marvic and Mr. and Mrs. Steve Rodman and daughter, Patsy, all of Escanaba, and Mr. and Mrs. John Rodman of Gladstone.

Stephenson

Home Demonstration Club

The Stephenson Home Demonstration will meet Monday, June 14 at 7:30 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Joseph B. Gucky for the lesson on "Poultry Cutting."

Recreation News

Approximately 20 boys have been participating in the morning recreation activities which began June 1st. The boys have been playing baseball. A game will be played against the Daggett team Tuesday, June 15, at 10 a. m. This will be the first of a series between the two teams. The first game will be played at Daggett. The bus will leave the school at 9:30 a. m.

If the weather remains warm the swimming season will begin Tuesday afternoon. Monday afternoon will be used to cleaning up the swimming area and putting up the ropes and the diving board. Older boys are requested to come to the pool at 1 p. m. to aid the recreation director.

The regulations to be followed during the swimming season are the same as last year. They are: Children, 6 and under must be accompanied by a parent or older brother or sister.

Swimming instruction from 1 to 2 p. m.

Free swimming from 2 to 4 p. m. All swimming participants must come out of the water when the director blows his whistle at 4.

Guest Speaker

Archie Roberts, student in the Stephenson High School, will be the guest speaker at the Stephenson and Ingalls Methodist churches Sunday June 13. Mr. Roberts has done work in speech in the local high school and has competed in speech contests held in Michigan high schools.

This past spring he competed in a speech contest held on the Michigan State College campus.

Summer Schedule of Masses
Sunday Masses at the Church of the Precious Blood will be at 6:30 a. m., 8:00 a. m. and at 10:00 a. m. to conform with the summer schedule.

THE FORMER Adeleen Kyes of Bath became the bride of Frank Sudac Jr. of Escanaba in a ceremony today at St. Thomas Chapel in East Lansing. The newlyweds are leaving following this afternoon's reception for a honeymoon in Northern Michigan.

Keep Cool-- Sleep Cool

By JOY MILLER

You don't have to live in an igloo to sleep cool in summer.

When the hot and humid nights close in, says a sleep expert, you can keep cool by observing three basic rules.

The rules, enumerated by Norman Dine, who heads the department of a New York specialty store, are:

1. Keep heat out of the bedroom.
2. Move out heat already inside.
3. Sleep in a bed that absorbs heat from the body.

"Heat can be kept out if windows are shielded by trees, awnings, venetian blinds or double shades," says Dine. "Double shades are black and white. The black absorbs heat and the white, next to the window glass, reflects it."

As for moving heat out, Dine says, an air conditioner is the simplest way. Less expensive is the exhaust cooling fan that fits windows and takes out the humid air.

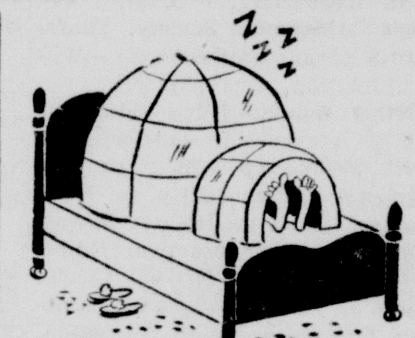

"The bed is the most important factor of all," Dine insists.

It should be located in the airiest part of the room and have enough space under it for the air to circulate freely.

Bed fans that fit under a bed have been developed recently, Dine says, to move air without producing drafts. A regular electric fan can be used if it will fit under your bed or if it is placed beside the bed with the air shot downward and not on you.

Dine says a good way to get the most air circulation from an electric fan is to face it toward a wall about 30 inches away and let the air bounce.

"The coolest beds are porous," our expert explains, "and the most porous beds are foam latex." He recommends the new porous nylon sheets — now in an open weave — foam latex pillows and — if you need them — blankets of porous nylon and sheer wool.

A helpful gadget is a blanket lift that fits over the end of the bed and raises sheets and blankets off your toes to allow air circulation and remove pressure. "A homemade one would work just as well," Dine says.

Bedtime baths should be body temperature — about 98 degrees — not hot or cold.

And if you must read in bed, use fluorescent lamps. They're cooler.

A last suggestion: "Put your hot temper in cold storage and keep calm. All the air conditioners, porous mattresses and tepid baths in the world are useless if you flare into anger at the drop of an ice cube," says Dine.

"Hot and bothered" is not a meaningless phrase."

Harold C. Anderson Receives Degree

STEPHENSON—Harold C. Anderson Jr. son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold C. Anderson of Stephenson is among the 636 students at Western Michigan College, Kalamazoo, taking part in the 51st annual commencement service at the college today. He will receive a two-year certificate for Automotive Technology.

When backs of skirts get shiny, sponge them with a solution of half water and half ammonia. If shine persists, rub lightly with a clean suede brush. Use cheesecloth saturated with vinegar to remove shine from blue serge, black silk and crepe.

North Park Group In Sacred Concert Monday Evening

The Missionaries of North Park College, Chicago, will present a program of sacred music at the Evangelical Covenant Church in Escanaba Monday, June 14, at 8 p. m. This group, composed of five students and a faculty representative, has given programs in and around Chicago during the school year and now is engaged in a ten-week summer tour of the Great Lakes and the middle-eastern sections of the United States.

Their program includes a vocal quintet, vocal trio, vocal solos and cornet solos.

Members of the Missionaries are Ardis Ardell of Marquette, Kan., Miriam Coleman, Jamestown, N. Y., Kenneth Johnson, Wahoo, Neb., Sarah Nordstrom of Minneapolis and Burdette Palmberg of Aurora, Neb.

The public is invited to attend the concert. There is no admission fee but a free will offering will be taken.

The group also will give a concert at the Ev. Covenant Church in Gladstone Tuesday, June 15, at 8 p. m.

Perkins

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Gibbs and John, Karen and Marilyn attended the golden wedding reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gustave Roberts of Rapid River Tuesday.

Mrs. Clifford LeClaire has received word that her granddaughter, Miss Marlene LeClaire of Davison has enlisted in the Naval Reserve and is leaving June 13 for two weeks' training at Bainbridge, Md. Miss LeClaire, daughter of the Elmer LeClaire, former Perkins residents, was graduated from Davison High School June 9.

Louis Miron, who has been ill at his home several days, has been admitted to St. Francis Hospital for medical treatment.

Mrs. William Trudell, Mrs. Fred Krouth, Mrs. Nellie LaForst and Mrs. Charles Parker motored to Crystal Falls Wednesday. They were accompanied home by Mr. Trudell who had been visiting relatives there.

Mr. and Mrs. Dennis King of West Allis and Mrs. Fred Gerou, Alfred Gerou, James Ward and Mrs. Loretta Whitte of Kenosha returned to their home after attending the ordination and First Solemn Mass of the Rev. Gilbert Neurohr.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe LeBresh, former Perkins residents, returned to Menominee following a visit here.

The American Legion Auxiliary will sponsor a social in the club rooms Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Byron Whitney of Waukegan visited relatives here and in Brampton.

Mrs. Charles LaForst and Mrs. Charles Parker have returned to Detroit after a two weeks' visit with relatives.

THE ENGAGEMENT of their daughter, Loretta Mae, to Richard Casey is announced by Mr. and Mrs. Fred Krause Jr. of 828 S. 19th St., Escanaba. Young Mr. Casey is a son of Mr. and Mrs. William Casey of Wells. The wedding date has not been set.

Marlin Buckmaster Awarded Scholarship

STEPHENSON—Marlin Buckmaster of Daggett, a June graduate at Stephenson High School, has been awarded a scholarship for his freshman year at the Sault Ste. Marie Branch of Michigan College of Mining and Technology, according to James C. Myers, Jr., Branch Registrar.

Awards are based on scholarship and financial need and are sufficient to pay the student's fees for the freshman year and, in some cases, a portion of the books, and supplies that are required. The scholarship committee awarded 16 Sault Ste. Marie scholarships this year to students throughout the State of Michigan.

Athletic Awards Received

Athletic awards for the school year of 1953-54 are ready for distribution to students. They are asked to call for their awards between the hours of 8 a. m. and 4 p. m. Monday through Friday June 18.

Luther Home Visit

The Women's Missionary Society of the Lutheran Churches of Stephenson and Wallace will make their annual visit to the Luther Home in Marinette Wednesday afternoon, June 16. The Society members will present the program and serve lunch to all the residents and visitors at the Home.

Each member is requested to bring something for the lunch.

In Lions Parade

The Stephenson Legion Drill team will lead the Stephenson Lions Club delegation in the U. P. Lions convention parade in Escanaba this afternoon. The drill squad is in charge of drillmaster Francis Dishneau. It will be their first appearance this season.

Stephenson Lions Club delegates to the convention include Edmund Sager, Joseph Beaudoin, Fred Pintal, Joseph LaComb, and Zone Chairman, David Olive.

School Elections Set For Monday

Two candidates, both incumbents, are the only ones who have filed for election for trustees in the coming school election to be held in Manistique Monday. They are Mrs. J. Joseph Herbert and J. Mauritz Carlson.

Everyone who voted in the last election is eligible to vote at this time. Voting precincts will be Lincoln school for voters in the first and second wards and Lakeside school for those of the third and fourth wards. Polls will be open from 7 a. m. to 8 p. m.

Trustees in the city are elected for four years.

Elections will also be held in four township districts with contests indicated in each of them.

In Doyle township, the candidates are Mrs. Buelah Rice, Mrs. Mathilde Nielson, Edward O. Jackson and Gerard Heinz. Two trustees are to be named.

In Inwood, with two trustees to be named, the candidates are Henry McGahan, Henry Orschell, Alex Wiegandt and Mrs. Viola Haindl.

Mueller township, with one trustee to be named has two candidates, Mrs. Leatha Vallier and William H. Tennyson.

In Manistique township the candidates are John Manning, James Hubble and Kermit Wolf. Two trustees are to be named.

Doyle school voters will also pass on the proposal of disposing of school property known as the Palmer school lot.

In the township elections trustees are elected for three years.

New State Police Cars Are Blue

One of the new types of state police patrol cars has arrived for service at the Manistique post. It differs from the old ones in that it is deep blue in color and has the Michigan State Seal emblazoned on its front doors. The seal is of luminous decal meant to reflect impressively when light is thrown upon it.

All replacements in the future will be cars of the type, says Sgt. Nick Modders in charge of the local post.

Rev. Johnson Is Ill; Services Postponed

Confirmation services this evening and tomorrow morning at Zion Lutheran Church have been postponed because of the illness of Rev. Wilbur Johnson of Rapid River who was to have conducted them.

There will be services Sunday morning at 9 conducted by student pastor Charles Malloch.

Navy Radar Devices Ruined By Saboteur With Salt Shaker

PASADENA, Calif. (P)—One thousand capacitors or condensers, manufactured for Navy radar equipment, were ruined by a saboteur Thursday with an ordinary salt shaker.

Hopkins Engineering Co. plant officials said they believe a disgruntled employe did the $500 damage.

Salt was sprinkled on two cartons of capacitors at the plant. A salt shaker was found nearby.

The condensers are so sensitive that salt alters the electric capacity of the paper that separates layers of aluminum foil in them.

Policeman Shoots His Wife; Mistakes Her For Bedroom Intruder

WASHINGTON (P)—A 26-year old policeman early Friday shot his wife in the head when he mistook her, he said, for an intruder in their bedroom.

The woman, Mrs. Lorraine Roszak, wife of Pvt. Charles W. Roszak of the park police, was taken to emergency hospital in a critical condition.

Roszak told police he was awakened by thunder and lightning and discovered his wife was not in bed. He said he saw a shadow in the room, picked up his revolver from a bedside stand and fired three shots at the shadow, thinking it was a prowler.

Wheat Crop Predicted At Billion Bushels

WASHINGTON (P)—The Agriculture Department Thursday released its latest crop estimates for 1954.

The estimates, on a nationwide basis, predicted a wheat crop of about one billion bushels—about 15 per cent smaller than the 1953 crop.

For Michigan the department predicted:

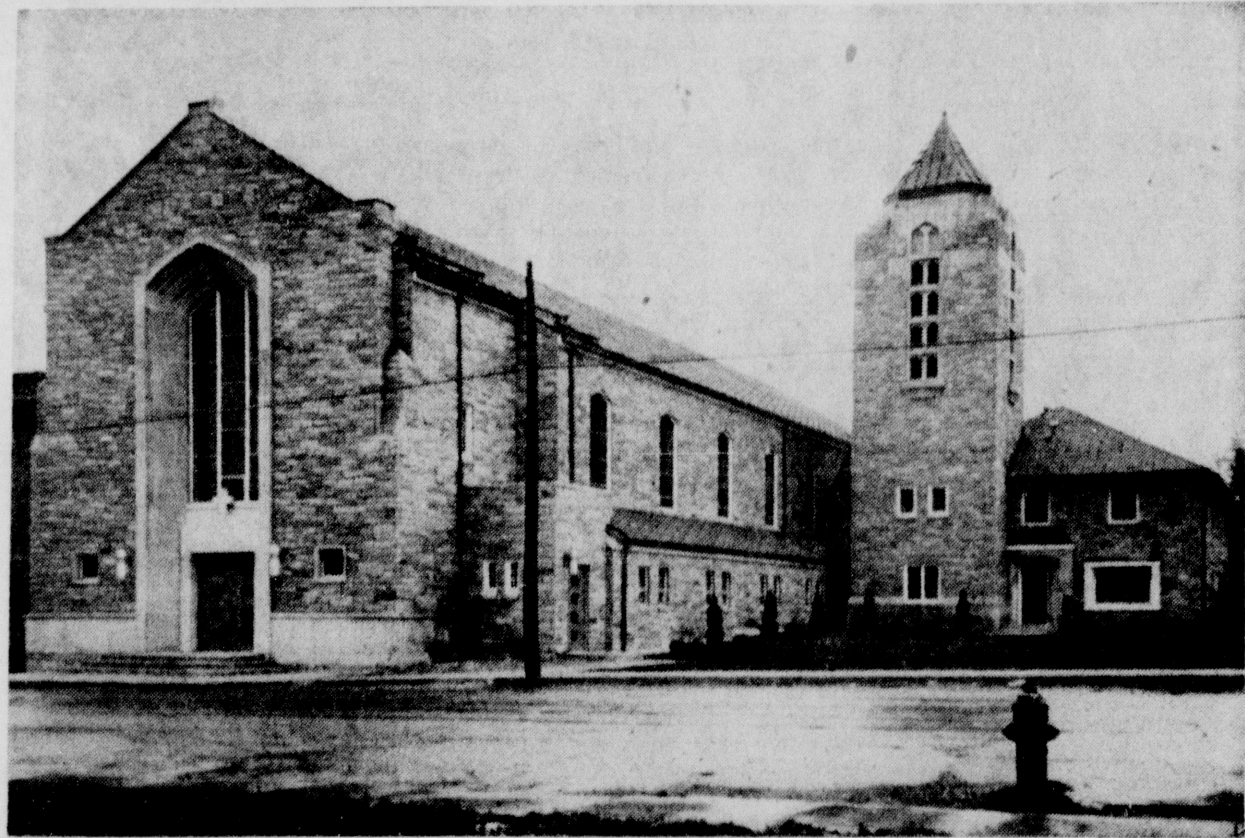

Winter wheat, average yield 28 bushels an acre; total production 28,840,000 bushels.

Rye, average yield 14.5 bushels per acre; total production 798,000 bushels.

Peaches, crop of 2,507,000 bushels, and a pear crop of 741,000 bushels.

Bishop Noa Will Dedicate New St. Francis Church On Tuesday

The New St. Francis de Sales Church

The Most Rev. Thomas L. Noa, bishop of Marquette, will deliver the sermon at the solemn dedication and blessing of the new St. Francis de Sales Church and rectory at 11 a. m. Tuesday, June 15. Bishop Noa, Ph. D., D. D., also will be in charge of the ceremony.

Liturgical chanting for the blessing will be done by a group of priests under the direction of Rev. Emil Beyer of Newberry.

Following the blessing of the buildings, a Solemn High Mass will be offered by Rev. Francis Scherlinger, pastor, in the presence of the Bishop. He will be assisted by an Arch Priest, Rt. Rev. Msgr. Nolan McKevitt, Marquette; two Deacons of Honor, Rev. Robert Sromovsky, O. Praem., Depere, Wis., and Rev. Lester Bourgeois, Hancock; Deacon of the Mass, Rev. John Hughes, Sault Ste. Marie; Subdeacon of the Mass, Rev. Ralph Sterbent, Engadine, and Masters of Ceremony, Very Rev. Msgr. Robert Chisholm, North Lake, and Rev. Arnold Casanova, Marquette.

Music of Mass

The school choir of 40 voices, under the direction of Sr. Eligius, will sing the proper parts of the Mass for the day. Rendering Silver's Mass in honor of St. Francis de Sales will be the senior mixed choir, under the direction of Ferd Gorsche. Senior choir personnel are sopranos, Bernice Archambeau, Corrine Bernier, Lucille Billings, Helen Charron, Berace Edkahl, Mary Fackety, Flora Fregier, Myrtle Gotsch, Cele Hoholik, Lucille LaBrasseur, Gail LaBrasseur, Shirley Manderfield, Rose Patrick, Margaret Selling, Jeanette Selling and Lorraine Slining; altos, Catherine Charron, Loretta Charron, Dorothy Gorsche, Beverly Winsor and tenors and basses, Earl Cousineau, Connie Hoholik, Loren LaBrasseur, Joe Nelson and Jon Schuster. Choir director is Ferd Gorsche, and Geraldine LaMarche is organist.

An instrumental trio will perform during the dedication mass under the direction of Joseph Giovannini. It consists of Alroy Mersnik, Steve Smith and Kenneth Dixoner.

At the offertory will be sung the traditional Roman hymn, "Christus Vincit," by the combined choral groups. The Recessional will be Gounod's "Praises to the Father."

Owing to the fact that this occasion will mark the first time that the church's new pipe organ will be used, Bernard Mueller, organist and choir director of St. Anne's Church, Milwaukee, will preside at the console, instead of Mrs. Roy LaMarche, regular church organist. Mr. Mueller has worked with the Wicks Organ Co. as a concert organist for many years.

Dedication Banquet

Following the mass, a dedication banquet will be served the clergy and the Fourth Degree Knights of Columbus, who will act as a Guard of Honor for the Bishop and clergy throughout the ceremonies. The banquet will be served in the Knights of Columbus hall with St. Anne's Altar Society acting as hostesses.

George Matthews will preside as toastmaster for a short program to include talks by A. J. Cayia of the church committee, Msgr. Joseph Zryd of Negaunee and the Bishop. Building participants will be introduced, and ending the program will be a few vocal solos by J. Earl Cousineau and Loren LaBrasseur.

The church building, with an estimated cost of $350,000, is made of Lannon stone with an admixture of scay, is a pleasing combination of buff, tan, grey and red. Seating capacity for the church is 650, although the use of folding chairs on occasion will raise this figure to 1,000.

Imported marbles make up the entire sanctuary, the floors, predella, altars and lectern. Both the pews and sanctuary furniture

REV. FRANCIS SCHERLINGER—Fr. Scherlinger, present pastor of St. Francis de Sales Church and a great contributor in the construction and completion of the new church, was appointed to the Manistique parish Aug. 20, 1950 by Most Rev. Thomas L. Noa, bishop of Marquette. He succeeded Rev. B. J. Schever, O. Praem., who died the preceding May after a pastorate of 42 years at Manistique.

Rev. Scherlinger was born in Calumet, Mich., where he received his early scholastic education. He attended St. Norbert's High School, DePere, Wis., and a preparatory, Nazareth Hall, in St. Paul, Minn. Following his completion of classical studies, he attended the St. Paul Seminary in St. Paul. He was ordained to the priesthood April 23, 1933 by the Most Rev. Paul Joseph Nussbaum at St. Peter's Cathedral, Marquette. After his ordination, he remained as an assistant pastor at the Cathedral for four years. His first parish was the Rapid River and Trenary area. In 1940, he was assigned to Newberry for two years, after which he was a pastor for eight years at L'Anse.

are of solid oak.

Stained glass windows for the church are made of imported Munich glass and have been created and fashioned especially.

Of unusual interest is the fact that one of the huge windows will feature Bishop Frederic Baraga, saintly founder of the parish.

New Pipe Organ

Hand carved lindenwood, imported from the Tyrol, fashions the statuary. Lindenwood statues are the great Crucifix over the main altar, the images of the Blessed Virgin Mary and St. Joseph, the Stations of the Cross and the Sorrowful Mother Stations.

In the musical category, the pipe organ is one of the company's finer achievements, and the carillons in the church tower are to be operated electrically.

The third oldest Catholic parish in the Upper Peninsula is Manistique, preceded only by Sault Ste. Marie and Mackinac Island.

In 1832, a little log chapel, whose ruins up to several years ago, could be discerned near the present Arrowhead Inn, was built by Father Baraga when at the invitation of the Indians he came to Indian Lake by canoe.

Regarding his sojourn in Manistique in 1832, Father Baraga States in his diary, "I called them all together and having first blessed the church, I said Holy Mass in it and preached. I cannot describe with what deep emotion and gratitude towards God I performed the ceremonies of the church. The thought: In this wild place, in this primeval forest, where but lately only the cry of the savages was heard and idolatrous sacrifices offered to the wicked spirits; now in this same place stands a temple of the living God in which the Immaculate Lamb of God is offered to the Heavenly father—this thought affected me deeply so that I wept tears of profoundest emotion, and I could not find words with which to thank God. Happy are we that He needs not the expression of words! He sees our hearts! This little church is built out of logs and bark and is in want of all that can please the eye or express artistic taste; yet in it appears to me to be more precious in the eyes of God than many churches in Europe, richly decorated with gold and the works of art, and which are often desecrated by the lukewarmness and misbehavior of those that visit them."

Fire Destroys Church

After the rustic little church in the wildwood fell into ruins, Catholics here received care from the Garden Bay parish. When Manistique paper began to develop, Catholics attended divine services in the town hall or in private homes. In 1883, Father Majerus, the first pastor, undertook to build a Catholic Church at the corner of Oak and Lake Streets. This church served the needs of the growing Catholic population for 70 years, having been twice enlarged. Rev. Melchior Faust built the original rectory, which also was later enlarged.

This church was destroyed by fire April 29, 1953. Building plans for a new church and rectory, started some year or two in advance, were now accelerated, so that following the razing of the old wooden structure, the building of the new St. Francis de Sales Church started in June 1953.

With the leadership of his pastor, Rev. Fr. F. M. Scherlinger, the Parish Advisory Council contacted and obtained the services of the eminent Green Bay firm of architects, Foeller Schober, Berners, Safford and Jahn, which drew up plans for the church and rectory. The Parish Council consists of Messrs. A. J. Cayia, Dan Harrington, Charles Havelcheck, R. G. Hentschell and George Matthews.

A pledge campaign among the parishioners started in 1951, added handsomely to sums previously set aside for construction. Since 1931, the Manistique parish had

Miss Overton Will Teach At Lake Orion School

Miss Gertrude H. Overton has resigned her position in the English department of the Iron Mountain High School to accept a similar position in the high school at Lake Orion, Mich.

Miss Overton earned a life certificate at Michigan State Normal College, where she majored in English and minored in speech. She received a B.A. degree from Northern Michigan College of Education, with a major in English, and minors in psychology and history. She did graduate work at the University of Michigan, where she received an M.A. degree in guidance and English.

When Miss Overton came to Iron Mountain in 1923, she taught English in the Hulst Junior High School. When the new Junior High was built, she was transferred there, teaching English in grades 7, 8, and 9. Since 1946 she has been a member of the faculty in the Iron Mt. High School, where she has taught journalism and senior English and has been advisor of the school paper.

At the time of her resignation, Miss Overton was head of the English department and chairman of the Iron Mountain Council of Teachers of English. As a member of the Mich. Council of Teachers of English, Miss Overton was responsible for organizing English Councils throughout the Upper Peninsula.

looked forward to a new church when a fund was begun by Fr. B. J. Schevers, former beloved pastor.

During the past four years, the parish societies have been very active in raising funds for the building program. Their united efforts made the dream of a new church come true more quickly than otherwise. The parish also appreciates the donations made by friends, not members of the congregation.

'Few Prison Inmates Hold College Degrees,' Gries

A talk delivered by Walter F. Gries, director of the welfare department of Cleveland Cliffs Iron Company, at the high school auditorium Friday night, highlighted the commencement exercises that brought the current Manistique High School year to a close.

Speaking in an informal manner and interspersing his philosophy of life with stories about his Cousin Jack, Finnish and Italian friends, he was able to bring home very effectively a number of forceful and impressive truths.

So often young people at this time of the year are told, he said, "Your good times are over—now you must go to work." That is only a half truth. The fact that one must forego the pleasant things of life just because one must work, is an error, he said. The greatest joy in the world can come from good, useful work, he told the graduates.

The tax dollars spent on our schools, he said, are the best investment the country can ever make. A high school diploma, he added is the finest insurance policy against a life of crime that one can possess.

Speaking from experience as a former warden of the Marquette Prison, he said that in the entire population of that crowded institution, there were only two inmates who possessed a college degree and but 11 who possessed a high school diploma.

Education, he said, is not so much a matter of crowding ones brain with a lot of facts and figures, but a means of enabling one to find out what he does not know.

His final injunction was that each graduate should ground himself solidly on his religion.

The speaker was introduced by Supt. A. F. Hall, a fellow classmate at the University of Michigan.

Diplomas to the class' 85 students were presented by J. Mauritz Carlson, president of the Manistique Board of Education.

Briefly Told

BYF Meeting—The young folks of the Bethel Baptist Church will meet in the church at 6:30 p. m., Sunday.

Quarterly Meeting—Rev. L. A. Robert, District Superintendent, will be the special speaker at weekend services at the Free Methodist Church. The occasion is the Fourth Quarterly meeting of the year.

Philathia Class—The Philathia Class of the First Baptist Church will hold a picnic Tuesday June 15 at the Peasey cottage at Sunset Beach. Pot luck lunch will be served. Those desiring transportation are asked to meet at the church at 6:30 p. m.

Pilot, Lost In Fog, Makes Forced Landing On U. S. 2

A freak fog, pushed in from Lake Michigan nearly caused a crash of a plane piloted by John Bindon of Bay City Wednesday afternoon.

Bindon, seeking to land at the Manistique airport, lost his bearings and decided to land along the highway and did so about eight miles east of here. He managed to land on the right-of-way, clear of the road, but a sudden gust of wind swung the plane around and onto the highway and at the same moment a car came along and grazed the wing of the plane so closely that the car's outside mirror was broken.

The car owner stopped and demanded reimbursement for the mirror, which Bindon paid, and the motorist went on his way without asking if anyone was hurt or anything damaged.

The plane eventually was taken to the airport. The only damage was a break in the landing gear.

Gives The Town That Neat Look — — — —

Traffic lanes and parking spaces are being outlined in bright yellow on Manistique's business streets this week. This guides traffic and makes for orderly parking. But more than that, the freshly painted markings tend to give a neat and clean look to the town. So it is in our business. Cleaning and pressing of your clothes not only freshens and lengthens their life but adds to your self respect and the respect your friends have for you.

C-C Votes Help To Local Birlers

The sum of one hundred dollars was voted by the Gladstone Chamber of Commerce this week to help defray the expenses of local birlers making the trip to participate in the National Role at Priest River, Idaho.

It was left to the discretion of the birlers as to how to divide the amount. The role will be held Friday through Sunday, June 25-27. Entered from Gladstone are William F. Girard Sr., Lowell Girard, Adolph Girard, Robert Bizeau and Janis Hoffmann.

Highway signs at the north and south entrances to the city are to be refinished according to specifications and recommendations of Tom McDonough, Escanaba. Scotch tape will be used to some extent. The city will be requested to reset the signs in more conspicuous places.

The plan of the Muskegon Chamber of Commerce in organizing an auxiliary for women is being investigated and possibly will be put into effect in Gladstone.

The plan of August Mattson Post, American Legion, to extend an invitation to the Upper Peninsula Association of Legion Posts to hold their 1955 convention in Gladstone was endorsed by the directors.

No regular directors meetings will be held during July and August.

Barbara Brock Becomes Bride Of Milan Wolf

A double ring service this morning at All Saints Catholic Church united in marriage Miss Barbara Jane Brock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Brock, Kipling, and Milan Charles Wolf, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wolf Sr., Ensign.

Apple blossoms graced the church altars for the occasion. Rev. Fr. Matt LaViolette, was celebrant of the 10 a. m. nuptial mass. The student choir sang the music of the mass with Miss Carol Ann Mackie, organist and accompanist.

The bride was escorted up the white carpeted aisle by her father who gave her in marriage. Her bridal gown of satin and chantilly lace was designed with a lace bodice edged with a stand-up Peter Pan collar and long sleeves tapering to points at the wrist. The satin skirt had an overskirt of chantilly lace in redingote style forming a train. A crown of plaited net trimmed with tiny lily-of-the-valley secured her fingertip veil of nylon tulle. She carried a colonial bouquet of white carnations centered with red roses.

The bride's sister, Miss Rosalie Brock, was maid of honor and the bridesmaids were the Misses Helen and Mary Wolf, the bridegroom's sisters. Cindy Brock, the bride's sister, was a junior bridesmaid. The attendants wore like gowns of net over taffeta and chantilly lace styled with short cap sleeves and bouffant floor length skirts. Lace half hats trimmed with tiny lily-of-the-valley and lace gauntlets completed their ensembles. They each carried a colonial bouquet to match their gown.

The little flower girls, Peggy Royer and Pamela Trudeau wore floor length gowns of pink net over taffeta and lace styled like the attendants. Peter Blair was ring bearer.

The bride's mother made all the gowns for the wedding. John Wolf served his brother as best man and ushers were Tony Mauhar and Tom Schrock.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Brock chose a navy blue suit with white accessories and the bridegroom's mother wore a navy blue dress with white accessories. Each had a corsage of white carnations.

A reception will be held at the Kipling hall this afternoon from 4 until 8. A wedding dance will be held this evening from 9 until 1.

They will motor through the Copper Country and Niagara Falls on their wedding trip. For going away the bride will wear a navy suit with white accessories. They will live at 1115 Michigan Ave., Gladstone.

The bride attended Gladstone High School and the groom is a graduate of Rapid River High School, class of 1950.

Out of town guests are Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Koyle, Detroit; Mr. and Mrs. J. Thygesen and Mr. and Mrs. Al Gordon, Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. Swann Anderson, Hermansville; Mr. and Mrs. Ed Launderman and daughter, Val, Marinette; Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Royer, Manitowish; Victor Wolf, brother of the groom, Eau Claire, Mich.; Blash Wolf, Menominee; Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Turpa and Kaye, Niagara, Wis.; Al Hansen and A. Anderson, Menominee.

Karen Lee's Party

Karen Lee Creten entertained a group of her friends Tuesday evening at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Isadore Creten, N. 14th St., upon the occasion of her 14th birthday anniversary.

Games were played and each guest won a prize. A tasty birthday luncheon was served and the table was centered with an attractively iced cake bearing pink candles.

Karen received many nice gifts as mementoes of the occasion.

Guests included Cheryl Kallio, Pamela Artley, Joanne and Diane Creten, Judy Switzer, Carol

May Register For Camp To June 20

The deadline to register for the annual Girl Scout Day camp to be held next month in Gladstone has been extended to Sunday, June 20, it was announced yesterday by Mrs. Theodore Goetz, day camp chairman.

All Brownie and the younger intermediate Girl Scouts not yet through the 6th grade are eligible to attend.

The camp will be held at the usual Day Camp site at Bunker Hill overlooking beautiful Little Bay de Noquet and there will be two four-day periods: July 13-16 and July 20-23. The fee is $2.00 for each or either period. Registrations should be made with Mrs. Tom Hite, registrar.

Mrs. Ray Gazlay is again directing the camp.

Where would the Tribe be without the Spanish-speaking delegation of Avila, Eduardo, (Mike) Garcia, Rudolfo Regalado, not to mention skipper Alfonso Lopez?

The basic humility of Rocky Marciano is no better revealed than in this question he popped to us in a tramp over the mountains at his Grossinger, N. Y., training camp: "Murray, you've seen me fight a lot. Tell me, what's my weakness?"

We asked Bob Golden, one of the champ's sparring partners, if he'd ever stung Rocky ... "Couple of times," he answered, "I hit him in the body, and I could hear him grunt, 'Ooh.' It felt real good, but while I'm standing there enjoying it, he's hitting me back" ...

Have the three New York clubs ever had a better set of center fielders than Duke Snider, Willie Mays and Mickey Mantle ... and not one of them at his peak yet? ...

You can't beat Johnny Sain's twisting motion, a la Freddie Fitzsimmons, for holding a runner close to second base ... Bucky Harris' insistence a year ago that Jim Busby change to an open hitting stride made a big league hitter of the fleet Texan ... Dugout pundits rate Mike Garcia the easiest pitcher to get a good jump on ...

O'Brien Steals Show From Santee With Record Heave

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Handsome musclemen Parry O'Brien stole the show from a pair of the world's greatest milers Friday night when he threw the 16-pound shot a record 60 feet 10 inches.

In the featured mile, Wes Santee of Kansas ran away from Olympic champion Josy Barthel of Luxembourg in the final 220 yards to win in 4:00.7, a tenth of a second slower than he ran last week but still the third best on record.

Even that couldn't eclipse the might efforts of O'Brien, the former University of Southern California star, in the district AAU meet at the coliseum.

AS the crowd of 9,440 roared, the 225-pound O'Brien four times threw the shot past the 60 foot mark, which, until he came along, was one of track and field's iron curtains.

Santee's effort may be his last of the season since he's scheduled for Marine summer camp at Quantico, Va., starting Monday after flying back to Kansas early today.

"I'm not slippin'," he said after running laps unofficially timed at 59.5, 60, 60.5 and 60.7 seconds. Last week at Compton, Calif., on a faster track but a colder night he ran 4:00.6.

Barthel kept right with Wes until after they passed the 3/4 mark in 3:00, and then the Kansan began to pull out, finishing about 50 yards ahead.

NEW YORK (AP)—The fight they couldn't fix' turned out to be a victory for Joey Giardello, anyhow.

Bobby Jones, who spurned an alleged $15,000 bribe offer from heavyweight Clarence Henry last Friday, fought a brilliant battle against the 9 to 5 favorite but lost the votes of all three officials.

It was a close call for the high-ranking Giardello, who hopes to fight Bobo Olson for the middleweight title Oct. 22. Referee Al Berl and Judges Artie Aldala and Frank Forbes all had it 5-4 for Joey. So did the Associated Press.

Giardello started with a rush, ran out of gas in the fifth round, got his second wind in the eighth, but withered again in the tenth under Jones' closing bid.

Asked what he thought of Giardello's chances against Olson, Jones had the perfect answer: "If you don't beat me, and I don't think he did, you don't beat Olson."

Giardello at 159 1/2 was sharper than he had been at 160 1/2 in losing to Pierre Langlois May 21. Jones weighed 157.

Michigan State, the "big," faces Rollins College, Winter Park, Fla., the "little," in the feature game tonight at 7 p.m. (CDT) as the only undefeated teams in the double elimination tourney.

Michigan State, the tourney favorite and a hard hitting club branded as one of the best of the Big Ten conference has ever produced when it comes to clubbing the ball, made it victory No. 2 in the meet by eking out a 2 to 1 victory over Arizona Friday night.

Rollins, whipped past Missouri, Big Seven champion, by a 4 to 1 margin on fast base running.

Waubung League Teams Are Set For Openers

The six-team Waubung Baseball League will make its first start of the 1954 season tomorrow with games scheduled for Stephenson, Powers and Carney.

Bark River will play at Stephenson and managers have asked all players to meet at 1 o'clock for the road trip.

Gladstone travels to Powers in its league opener. Fourteen hustling youngsters turned out Thursday evening to try out for the club under the direction of Gordon Haga. Another practice session is being held this afternoon.

Gladstone At Powers
Gladstone players will meet at the Recreation Building promptly at 12:30 for the trip to Powers.

The lineup for Sunday's game will not be selected until after the practice session today. It seems likely that Jim Bratonia will be on the mound with Billy Adams in reserve and Walter Houghton behind the plate.

Others trying out for the team are Roger Carlson, Joe DeMay, Tom Quinn, Jerry Thorsen, George Sisco, Frank Lash, Charles Lash, Jerry Anderson, Jerry Smith, Bob Brown and Allen Hoskins.

Alger Strom Jr. has joined the staff which will handle the team this summer.

July 1 Is Deadline For S-Ball Registry
Softball team managers are reminding that the deadline for registering teams is July 1. Players rosters accompanied by a $4 sanction fee must be filed with the local commissioner or with Keith Morin of Escanaba, treasurer of the U. P. Softball Association.

The names of the commissioners follow: Paul Vardigan, Escanaba; Mario Pietrantonio, Iron Mountain; Bud Abbott, Soo; John Hodges, Hubbard; Rudy Rezzatto, Ironwood; Jim Trethewey, Marquette.

The U. P. Class A finals will be held in Iron Mountain this year and will be a double elimination tournament for the first time. Class B finals will be played at Ishpeming with the Class C championships tentatively set for Negaunee.

The A and B tournaments will be run off Aug. 18 to 22 and Class C will be played the following weekend.

Hogan Shoots Against 125,000 Field Today
SPRINGFIELD, N. J. (AP)—Ben Hogan, who opens defense of his U. S. Open golf title next Thursday, gets his chance today to show he is better than at least 125,000 other golfers.

Hogan plays his 18 holes at Baltusrol Golf Club, where the Open will be held, as part of National Golf Day. The little Texan was scheduled to match his shots last Saturday against those who paid a dollar for the right to meet the champion. Hogan had to postpone the round because of a virus infection.

Both sides ride into the important third round with two wins and no defeats.

Michigan State probably will send senior Bud Erickson to the mound while Rollins will use either Bob Leader or Don Tasucher, both right handed fast ballers.

In the other games between once defeated clubs the scheduled puts Massachusetts against Missouri and Arizona, still a threat, against Oklahoma A & M.

Haga yesterday asked that players having Legion baseball uniforms bring them in for use by the team. The uniforms were used this spring by the Gladstone High School baseball nine.

Cubs At Carney
Third game on the opening slate will find the Esby Cubs at Carney. The Cubs will meet at Manager Al Ness' home at 1:15 in their old uniforms. "We're saving the new ones" for the home opener next weekend," Al explains. Starting lineup for the Cubs has not been named, but most of the following will be in action:

Infielders: Billy Goodreau, Cliff O'Donnell, Bucky Flath, Bob Durbord, Joe Juetten.

Outfielders: Dave Viau, Bob Chriske, Denis McGinn.

Catchers: Allan Erickson, Bill Bolm.

Pitchers: Don Trotter, John Berigan, Ricky Erickson.

County League standings Sunday when the Barks travel to Hardwood.

Manager Babe Kleiman's Bark River nine is deadlocked with Loretto at the head of the standings with three wins against no defeats. Loretto, newcomer to the circuit this season, is idle this weekend so will be unable to keep pace with Bark River. Hardwood, loser of both its starts, is not expected to offer too much competition to the defending champion Barks.

Powers, the other undefeated team in the seven - team league, will be shooting for win No. 3 at Niagara. The Badgers have won one and lost two. Daggett is at Perronville with both teams seeking their first victory.

Michigan State May Punish 4 Athletes Who Got In Trouble

EAST LANSING (AP) — Four Michigan State College football players who have been in trouble with authorities in recent weeks will be barred from athletic competition in the next school year if the charges are proved against them, President John A. Hannah of the college said today.

He made the statement at an adjournment of a State Board of Agriculture meeting.

MSC gridders who have brushed with the law recently are: Victor Postula, 21, a reserve halfback from Marshall, accused in a now withdrawn warrant of assault and battery; William Quinlan, 21, an end from Andover, Mass., accused of "violation of probation" following a fracas in front of a sorority house; Howard Graves, a freshman from Westfield, N. J., accused of raping a co-ed, and Eugene Lekenta, of Grand Rapids, arrested after a fight.

Hannah's statement said: "Michigan State College is proud of its student body x x x. The young men who constitute our athletic teams are a cross-section of the entire student body. We have always been proud of their conduct on and off the athletic field."

"Recently four young men have been involved or suspected of involvement in incidents of a kind that are contrary to our standards of good conduct. Because they have been members of the football squad they have been singled out for unusual publicity detrimental to them and to the college."

Boone's Bat Leads Tigers On Barrage Of Home Runs

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The Detroit Tigers' Philadelphia visit is paying off in some ways—and for Ray Boone in particular.

After two games with the A's the Tigers weren't a bit better off in the American league standings today but that man Boone looked wonderful.

Despite seven home runs, of which Boone hit three, the Tigers got only a split of Friday's twilight doubleheader, winning the first 16-5 and losing the second 2-1.

Two Grand Slams

Detroit's first game slugging, including grand slam homers by Boone and Rennie L. Kaline, softened some of the hard knocks of this Tiger road trip. Boone's homers, two in the opener and one for the only Detroit run in the second game, gave him 11 for the season.

Homers by Pitcher Ray Herbert, newcomer Wayne Belardi and Rookie Frank Bolling also figured in Detroit's 14-hit, first-game landslide. Reliever Herbert got credit for the win.

Home Wins Second

The A's took Detroit's home run example to win the second on Bill Renna's four-bagger in the sixth which spelled Steve Gromek's sixth defeat against seven wins, although he gave up only four hits.

The first game was almost a case of home run-or-no-count. Lou Limmer hit one for Philadelphia.

The Tigers, so powerful in the opener, faded before Marion Fricano in the second. He gave them only six hits. Only Boone's homer in the fourth prevented a shutout.

Garver Today

The teams met in the third game of the five-game series today with Ned Garver (4-2) slated to work against Bob Trice (6-4).

A hit batsman helped to bring on Gromek's defeat. He struck Joe Demaestri with a pitch with the bases full in the fourth to force in Philadelphia's tying run.

All the bombardment meant some casualties, too. Don Lund suffered a possible broken nose when hit on the bench by a foul liner by an Athletics batter. Fred Hatfield hurt his hand trying to stop the drive.

Everyone Is Happy After Player Swap

By TOM BRADSHAW

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A trio of ball chums, running the gamut of the American League standings, switched six players and everyone seemed happy with the shuffle.

The first place Chicago White

Sox came out of Friday's deal with leftfielder Morrie Martin and outfielder Ed McGhee. Martin is expected by General Manager Frank Lane to put the White Sox in even stronger contention for the pennant. McGhee was a sort of added starter.

The Philadelphia Athletics, badly becalmed in last place, picked up two pitchers—John (Sonny) Dixon and Al Sima, along with rookie outfielder Bill Wilson and $200,000 cash.

The Washington Senators, in the middle region of the league standings, acquired Constantine (Gus) Keriazakos, a $60,000 bonus hurler, and $200,000 folding money.

The deal went like this:

The A's wanted Dixon, so Lane got the 29-year-old right-hander from the Senators in return for Keriazakos and the cash. Then Martin and McGhee went to the Sox from the A's and Dixon, Sima and Wilson moved from Chicago to Philadelphia.

Martin and Wilson actually were the key players in the trading. Commented Lane of Martin:

"If he pitches the way we know he can, it could mean the pennant for us. He's the extra pitcher we need."

Trojans No. 1 At Ferry Field

By JOE FALLS

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (AP)—With all but one of its 15-man squad competing in today's finals, the University of Southern California—America's mightiest track power—is favored to name its own winning margin in the NCAA games on ancient Ferry Field.

And it probably will be 2 to 1 over its nearest competitor, which could be anyone of a half dozen teams. That's a big point of interest in these NCAA games—who will finish second?

The Trojans qualified eight of nine athletes in Friday's prelims. held under a searing sun, to smash early upset hopes of the largest NCAA field in history—92 teams.

Southern Cal is shooting for its sixth straight title and its 15th in the last 20 national meets.

Six other Trojans weren't required to qualify because there were not enough entrants in their events.

Figured to fight it out for the NCAA's "tiny title"—second place—are Michigan State, Illinois, California, Michigan and Stanford.

Willie Williams, Illinois' track version of footballer J. C. Caroline, skipped home in the 100-yard dash in 9.7, whipping his old tormentor, Dean Smith of Texas.

Marquette's broad jump king, John Bennett, leaped 24 feet, 4 inches to easily lead the field.

Power Steering To Be Cheaper

By DAVID J. WILKIE
Associated Press Auto Editor
ATLANTIC CITY, N. J. (AP) — Power steering installations for passenger cars are going to be greatly simplified — and much cheaper.

This was predicted by experts here for the Society of Automotive Engineers summer meeting.

Power steering devices presently range in price from $135 to about $200. One manufacturer reportedly is aiming at a 1955 price of $100 for a factory installation.

Francis W. Davis, Waltham, Mass., engineer who held basic patents on power steering devices, said he now is working on further simplification of the unit. Many of Davis' patents have expired, but he says about 50 per cent of the units currently in use are of his design.

Davis at one time was chief engineer for the Pierce-Arrow Motor Car Co. truck division. He demonstrated his first power steering unit in Detroit in 1926.

Davis visualized the possibility of a power steering unit with a solenoid switch that would permit the car operator to revert to wholly manual steering at his option.

Club Committees Named
HERMANVILLE — Various committees were named at a meeting of the Hermansville Sportsmen's Club at the Club House Monday evening. President William Anderson appointed Willard Johnson, Julius Faccio, and Frank Erick to the farmer relation committee.

Walter Peters, Warren Ayotte, and Edward LaMaide were appointed to make the float for the club for the July 4 celebration.

Isaac Polazzo, Lloyd LaCasse, Jr., George Maule and Ernest Dani are on the rifle team committee.

Frank Rodman was appointed chairman of the lunch committee for the next meeting. Assisting will be Jesse Yale, Frank Erick, Tony Machalk, Eugene Arduin and Ernest Dani.

Ben J. Filmowski was elected vice-president of the club and Victor Dani was elected sergeant at arms.

New members are G. H. Earle, John R. Duca Jr., John Kuhn, George Farley, Julius Haelterman and Jesse Yale.

Mr. Earle showed wild life movies and also films of the preparation and laying of the 30" pipeline from St. Ignace through Blaney Park.

Ricky Madison sat alone in the Dellville Drug at the soda fountain.

He heard the front door open but he didn't care who it was.

"Ricky . . ."

He looked reluctantly, self-conscious because he knew his right eye was still discolored and his lips were still puffy. And there was a scab on his forehead where a scrape was healing.

She stood close, looking at him with her wide, serious gray-green eyes, as though trying to look behind his eyes and read what was in his mind.

"I thought you'd call me."

He blushed. "I didn't think you'd want to see me until I . . . looked a little better."

"As though that mattered. How are you coming with your plans for the auto show?"

He looked at her shamefacedly. There was an expression of disappointment on her pretty face.

"I thought it over. I wouldn't have a chance, Sharon. Not a chance. Gosh, there'll be guys there with dream jobs. I'd look foolish with what I've got."

She looked at him searchingly, noticing his hesitancy and lack of confidence. "Is that the only reason? Because you're afraid you won't win?"

"I don't have the money . . . or the time . . . I'd be foolish to try."

"What about the DTA?" Sharon asked.

Ricky shrugged and looked outside. There was only one answer. He didn't want to be a lone wolf. He'd just take his old place with the guys again. Following Link, a guy had to have friends, and do what they did. Even if they did have a fight once in a while. That didn't mean anything. And he'd lead Link home some night.

"It's hopeless, Sharon. Why try to kid myself?"

"For a long time, Ricky, you've been telling everybody about your wonderful ideas for custom bodies, and the business you were going to start. Isn't it time you either put up or shut up?"

"Huh?" He was startled.

"This is your chance, you say you have good ideas, but the first chance you get to show what you can do, you turn chicken."

Ricky looked at her for a moment. "Let me show you something," he said quietly. "Wait here." He went out to his car and came back with a portfolio in his hand. "Let me show you some of my designs."

He opened the portfolio to the first, a long, low sports car with sweeping lines. "Like it?"

"It's beautiful!"

"Yeah, I could make my coupe look like that—for about $5000. And look at this design. Like it?"

Sharon nodded.

"Nice. But I forgot the state has laws about the minimum height of headlights and minimum road clearance. If I change to obey the laws, my design won't work at all. Even if these designs were good, I couldn't afford to have them built."

"So?"

"So," Ricky said. "So what's the use of trying to enter the auto show? I can't build anything anyone would want to buy, or have me build."

"Wait a minute," Sharon said. "Wait a minute. Come outside, Ricky. Please."

He followed her out. They stood in front of his coupe.

"Ricks, have you seen any other coupes that look like yours?"

"Only about a million. Every other rod in Iowa looks like this. Black, shaved, rear end lowered."

"How many of those drivers do you think would like their cars to look—well a little different from the others?"

He scratched his head thoughtfully. "Yeah . . . yeah, I see. Suppose I modified my coupe just enough so it was something different."

"Make the best of what you have, Ricky," Sharon urged. "This is a show for street rods. Make yours the most attractive one at the show. Show them what can be done with an old car for a reasonable amount."

"It would advertise my business," Ricky said, beginning to get excited.

"And I might help you design."

"You?" Ricky asked incredulously.

"Well, you'll be surprised how much help I can give you. Anyone can draw a pretty dress, Ricky, but one that looks good on paper and one that looks good on people—they're sometimes two different dresses. And I know it's the same with cars."

He went to the coupe and drew lines with his finger to show her what he had in mind.

"I'd like to start fairly high in front, see, and make a long line that sweeps back and down. Then, about three-quarters of the way back, I want to start my second line, a little higher than the end of the first and sweep that back and down. No boxy look, no lightning zigzags or that kind of chrome-plated stuff. Just something simple, almost severe, but graceful."

"Just like a dress," Sharon said. "A cheap dress can hide bad lines under a lot of ruffles and sashes. But the hardest thing in the world to make is a simple black dress. It has to be good or it shows."

"That's what I want," Ricky said. "Something simple, that shows good."

He looked up at the sound of a goose horn in the street. Link was there in his convertible, followed by Chub, Jerry and Sherm. "You coming?" Link yelled. It was a command.

Ricky hesitated. He'd made a fool out of himself so many times with his big talk. He looked at Sharon. She looked away. It was his decision.

"We're going to Des Moines," Link said. "Come on."

Coal Firm Manager Held For Embezzling $20,000 In Detroit

DETROIT (AP) — A 45-year-old Detroit coal firm aide was held for investigation on a charge of embezzling $20,000 from his employer.

John Luke Carroll, an ex-convict, was arrested Wednesday after a mile-long chase at high speeds through a downtown area. Arrested with Carroll was Napoleon Smith, 35, of Detroit.

Police said Carroll was the manager of the Finley Coal Co. and that Smith was a contract driver for the firm.

Carroll is accused of allowing Smith to take 1,400 tons of coal without the knowledge of company officials. The two men, police said, split the $20,000 obtained from the sale of the coal.

Carroll served a five year prison term on a larceny by conversion charge. He was found guilty of accepting $40,000 as deposits on new cars which never were delivered. The offense occurred in 1946 and 1947 when new cars were scarce.
